DRAMATIC VAUDEVILLE THEATRICAL MUSICAL BURLESQUE OPERA

PROCTOR'S THEATRE FIRE.

An Exemplification of Theatre Management.

Proctor's 125th Street Theatre building in New York City, was visited by a fire Friday evening, May 6, while an audience of nearly two thousand people sat enjoying the bill that was being put on.

It was about 9:30 o'clock when the fire broke out in the office portion over the theatre. A passer-by saw the flames shooting from the windows in the fourth floor and quietly gave the information to the manager, Harry Brunell. In ten seconds the asbestos curtain was drawn and the audience was quietly informed of the fire by both Manager Brunell and the police, who had almost instantaneously, entered the house and stationed the reserves in positions to control the vast crowd that was in danger.

Timely words of warning came from Manager Brunell, the orchestra leader and Paul McAllister, of the stock company. Capt. McNally, of the police force, rushing down the center aisle, called out, "Slowly, don't rush; I'll club the first man to death who starts to run."

It was a most trying moment, but those in charge had played their part well. It was now time for the audience to act. Realizing the danger of a panic and the awful results of a mad rush, the audience moved quickly, but quietly, from the house. It is said that in three minutes the house was empty, and not a person received the slightest injury.

As the people left the house a thrilling scene confronted them. Six fire engines were already in position, and were throwing streams of water on the lurid flames which emerged from the windows. A throng of people quickly gathered, but remarkable coolness reigned. It was not a miracle, but only a potent instance where cool-headedness and forethought ruled over and conquered the frailties too often exhibited in time of danger.

BELASCO'S NEW VENTURE.

David Belasco announces that he has accepted for an early production next season, Mr. Joseph Arthur's Oriental drama which is to be called Scirine, the name under which it received its English copyright performance, or perhaps Cross and Crescent. The scenes are laid in India in the year 1800 and around the golden domed ancient capital Agra, during the reign of the famous Mogul Emperor Jehangire. Mr. Belasco intends to give the play upon a more elaborate scale than even The Darling of the Gods and he says it will be the crowning effort of his life. Under Mr. Belasco's direction, Mr. Arthur goes abroad in June and afterwards to India, to secure historical effects and native types, costumes and properties to be used in the play, upon which Mr. Arthur has spent three years, backed by close study and a detailed knowledge of the land, its people and costumes. The play has a strong religious background.

W. S. CLEVELAND SUES ACTORS.

W. S. Cleveland has filed suit for $100,000 damages against Nance O'Neil and A. McKee Rankin for failure to carry out a contract for production of plays at the new Cleveland Theatre, in Chicago.

Cleveland alleges a direct loss of $10,000 through preparing scenery and stage equipment and hiring a supporting company for the defendants.

It is said $5,000 was spent for advertising the plays, which were not produced, and that the defendants overdraw their accounts with Cleveland $1,000. It is also alleged the defendants tried to have the theatre closed and endeavored to wreck his business. They are said to have so interfered with the theatre company's plans as to have made it impossible to procure other suitable attractions, depriving the managers of large profits they otherwise would have made.

NEW YORK CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

New York is to have a liberally endowed conservatory of music within a few months if nothing occurs to change present plans. James Loeb, a son of the late Solomon Loeb, it is announced, will give $50,000 as a nucleus of such an endowment, and ten of his friends, it is also understood, will each subscribe $5,000. Among those interested in the project is Andrew Carnegie, who is said to have offered to the conservatory the use of Carnegie Hall. The funds arising from interest on the endowment will be largely used for salaries, and they will be made sufficiently large to attract the best musical educators available. The new conservatory will not be a free school. The running expenses of the institution will be met from the tuition charge.

WEBER'S NEW PARTNER.

It is reported that Sam Bernard and Joe Weber, of the erstwhile firm of Weber & Fields, may go in partnerships. In view of this fact, it is said that Mr. Bernard cabled an offer to Mr. Chas. Frohman, of $10,000 for his release from present contracts. The offer, it is understood, was refused, and may prevent the formation of the proposed union.

Thomas, the millionaire turfman, for $4,000 back salary for playing in The Mocking Bird, of which, they alleged, Mr. Thomas was the "angel," found a verdict for the plaintiffs for $4,445.17, the amount sued for, with interest.

Sunday, the romantic play produced in the Comedy Theatre, is what every London manager has been seeking. This is the piece upon which three young members of Wilson Barrett's company collaborated under the name of Thomas Racewood. Its atmosphere is largely American, two out of the four scenes, being laid in a western mining town.

It is reported that Albert M. Palmer, manager, has filed at New York, a bankruptcy petition in which he gives his liabilities at $152,994 and says he has no assets. According to the schedule many of Mr. Palmer's debts date back to 1888 and were contracted in New York, Brooklyn, Stamford and Chicago. The claims are all unsecured.

Important changes are about to be made in La Salle Theatre Stock Company at Chicago, Ill. Joe Kane is to join for a new "Dutch" part in The Royal Chef, now being written for him. Matt C. Woodward, Blanche Homan and Maud Alice Kelly, have resigned. Mr. Woodward will be succeeded by Harry Leone, now the Don Juan in An English Daisy.

It is reported that Kate Claxton, now playing the Two Orphans, will retire, at least temporarily, from the stage at the expiration of her present contracts. The actress is much bereaved over the recent loss of her son in New York City, and this is given as the cause of her determination to retire to her own home for a time. It is said that after her return from New York City, Miss Claxton broke down twice during the performance at Anderson, Ind.

James L. Glass, manager of Spencer Walker, supported by the Donna Troy Stock Co., opens the regular summer season at New Albany. The company, this season is one of the strongest, playing Kusell's Park circuit. Harry Leone, of the English Daisly Company, has joined the La Salle Theatre Stock Company in Chicago.

When the Wheel Shows close, stock burlesque will be put on at the Lyceum Theatre, Philadelphia, Pa., to run all summer.

The Bon Ton Theatre at Jersey City, N. J., has made Friday of each week amateur's night, and it is proving a good drawing card.

Kalb & Dill and Barney Bernard, left San Francisco recently for Australia where they will appear for a season in Weber's Burlesques.

The Seaside Belles was the new burlesque presented by the Cozy Corner Stock Company, of Brooklyn last week. Henry Montague is its author.

Walter Hitchcock, the attractive heavy man of The New York Players, last season, has been re-engaged for the approaching summer season by Hunter & Bradford.

Harold Cornell and Hattie Bernard Chase, who recently closed with the Willis Stock Company, have been engaged with A Brother's Crime Company, the former to play the heavy and the latter the leading soubrette.

Trimbles Froliques will open their summer season at Morgan City, La., on Sunday, May 15. They will play the states of Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia. The roster is as follows: William Trimble, manager; Edward Snell Smith, advance representative; Whitney Trimble, business manager; Phil W. Peters, stage manager; Jules Bistna, electrician; Charles Schilling, advertising agent; Lucius Lescal, leader of orchestra; Touro Gluckman, properties; Phil W. and Nettie Peters, merry entertainers; Ada Warner, songs and stories; Fred J. Lewis and Martha Chapin, ragtime Irishman and gay soubrette; Sam Jerome, the funny Jew; Ida Clifford, singing comedienne; Master Earl, boy tenor; Billy Russell, eccentric comedian and Billy Trimble, monologist.

FARCE COMEDY.

After closing the season as manager of Side Tracked, Tom North has returned to his home at Bay City, Mich. Mr. North was given a warm welcome by his townsmen and the newspapers at Bay City devoted quite a large space to his praises. The "Songs of Butulsky," of which he is the originator, turned out emmasse. The organization now numbers 16,000 members.

Joseph Hart and Carrie De Mar end their second season in Foxy Grandpa, in Providence, R. I. Next year they will have a new play by R. Melville Baker.

ODDS AND ENDS.

An serie of Eagles was instituted at Hagerstown, Md., recently. There were a hundred charter members.

Keene, the magician, has closed his company and will accept the superintendency of an automobile factory in Hagerstown, Md.

Mr. Tom North, manager of Jule and Elmer Walters' Side Tracked Company, has purchased a cozy home at 410 Fitzhugh St., Bay City, Mich., Atlantic City (N. J.) Lodge, B. P. O. E., No. 276, recently held their annual election, which resulted as follows: Joseph McNamee, Exalted Ruler; Harry Behl, Esteemed Leading Knight; H. Dixey, Esteemed Loyal Knight; John Gill, Esteemed Lecturing Knight; J. Leon Phillips, Chaplain; George Stoddard, Secretary; O. P. Saunden, Esquire; Harry W. Tyler and Frank B. Hublin, Inner Guards. This is one of the banner lodges of the country.

FOREIGN.

Leoncavallo has finished his opera, Roland of Berlin, which was written to the order of the German Emperor. The text has been translated into German by Droecher, the stage manager of the Berlin Royal Opera. The premiere is set for October, next, at the Royal Opera in Berlin.

The Berlin Opera House, which was closed by order of the German Emperor after the Iroquois Theatre fire, is now provided with the most complete system of emergency exits that ingeniously can devise. These exits are approached from the stalls, the pit, the gallery and the stage by numerous passages, on the walls of which bright red placards, marked "Feuerweg," stand prominently forth. These passages communicate with the outside of the building by means of doors, fastened by sealed strings, which yield to the slightest pressure; and from them broad winding staircases lead down on the outside of the opera house to the ground.

Those persons who believe the American stage needs a national theatre and conservatoire, will be interested to hear that Beerholm Tree's Academy of Dramatic Art in London is now an accomplished fact. The inauguration ceremony took place week of April 25 at His Majesty's theatre, and students have already begun work. Mr. Tree, in a long address, stated that Sir Henry Irving had sent his warmest good wishes for the success of the step, which he considered was one in the right direction. Wilson Barrett, on the contrary, said the scheme had not his approval, because of the inability for tuition. Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, M. Coquelin and Miss Ellen Terry all wrote commending the scheme and wishing it success.

MARRIAGES.

Miss Martha Chevillard, assistant wardrobe woman of Richard Mansfield's company, and Michael Fitzgibbons, stage carpenter with the same company, were married recently.

Signor Oreste Vessella, the Italian bandmaster, and Miss Edna Egan, of Cincinnati, O., were married at the home of the bride, May 4. The couple will spend their honeymoon in the East.

It has just developed that Miss Mary Hall, of Mr. E. H. Southern's company, has been married for two months to Dr. C. T. Pearce, of Cincinnati. News of the marriage was kept secret on account of her engagement with that company. She will retire from the stage and will be at home in Walnut Hills after May 15.

Frederick James, of Columbus, Ohio, and Miss Marie Barborka, of Chicago, leading man and leading lady with the American Stock Company, were married at Ottawa, Ill., April 27. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Farrar at the Episcopal Church. The announcement of the marriage was a surprise to the other members of the company, but they were soon bestowing their best wishes upon the couple.

OBITUARY.

Nelly Farren, an old-time Gaiety Theatre favorite, died in London, April 28 of gouty affection of the heart. Nelly Farren was a member of the first Gaiety company which visited the United States. She was a great favorite and first brought the Gaiety Theatre into prominence. It became known in 1898 that she was suffering from adversity and her friends on March 17, of that year gave her the most remarkable benefit ever witnessed in London. Every available seat was sold weeks ahead, netting $25,000, while subscriptions poured in from many sources. When the performance began it was said Drury Lane had never held such a large number of people.

Berlin has been startled by the tragic death by shooting himself, of Herr Kammsetzer of the Winter Garden, the largest German music hall. He was well known to all English and American artists and in the theatrical world generally. It is reported that when he became a director of the Winter Garden, Herr Kammsetzer began a wild life. The German papers soon found it necessary to protest against his methods. They accused him of making a wrong use of his authority as director of the largest German variety theatre. It was particularly alleged against him that pretty performers were compelled to appear at orgies which "Konig Immer Lustig" used to provide for his admirers and friends among the gilded youth. Two English dancers finally complained to the proprietors of the Winter Garden, of the manager's conduct, and charges against him began to accumulate rapidly. His suicide was the result.

Harry Le Bear, a former theatrical man, died at Mt. Clemens, O., April 27, of rheumatism. He was formerly treasurer of the opera house at Cleveland, O., and was connected with several other enterprises. The remains were taken to Cleveland, April 30, for burial.

Loretta Willis, wife of Nat M. Willis, died in New York City on April 28. She was formerly on the stage with Mr. Willis doing a sketch under the team name of Willis and Loretta, but for the past three years had not been appearing in public. Mr. Willis was playing in Philadelphia at the time of her death, but immediately cancelled his engagement there and hurried to New York.

While working with an electrical wire at Chilhowee Park, Knoxville, Tenn., April 30, Clyde D. Cooper, a member of the Peruchl Theatrical Company, received a shock from which he died in thirty minutes. His home is at Jacksonville, Florida.

William J. Accoe, the well-known colored song writer and composer, died last week at the home of his father, the Rev. J. Harris Accoe, of Brooklyn, in his thirtieth year. He was a graduate of the Princess Anne Academy in Maryland, and he studied music under Herr Carl Mentz. He was organist in several churches of which his father had been pastor. For several years he had been with the music firm of M. Witmark & Sons. He wrote the songs of Williams & Walker. He recently completed the score of a comic opera. He was a member of the Theatrical Union. He composed his own funeral sermon.

After an illness of some weeks, Owen Fawcett, the veteran actor, died at his home in Flat Rock, Mich., recently. Mr. Fawcett recently celebrated his fiftieth year on the stage, at Wheeling, W. Va. He had performed with some of the greatest actors on the stage, including Booth, E. H. Southern and Mansfield.

Mr. Bert Adams, brother of Miss Ada Blanche, burlesque actress, died at Liverpool, England, April 17.

LAST OF THE BOSTONIANS.

Notable Career of a Comic Opera Company That Began With Pinafore.

The disbandment in its present form of the company known for more than fifteen years as the Bostonians will bring to an end a troupe which has played an important part in the history of amusements.

It was formed during the days of "H. M. S. Pinafore," as the Boston Ideal Opera Company, and its manager was a Boston woman, Miss Ober, who made a record for herself as a manager before her marriage to a wealthy Cleveland lawyer. Most of the singers had not had a great deal of experience in opera.

Henry Clay Barnabee had been an entertainer in lyceums through New England. Geraldine Umar had sung but little in public, and Adelaide Phillips, William Macdonald, Marie Stone, his wife, Tom Carl, George Frothingham and the rest of the company had not all made reputations for themselves, although Tom Carl had sung with the Emma Abbott companies, and so had Marie Stone.

The company sang Pinafore, and was one of the most successful of all the organizations giving this opera. After the vogue of Pinafore had passed away and the later Gilbert and Sullivan operas were more rigorously protected by law, the company took up such works as Fattinista, and it was as one of the young officers in this opera that Georgia Cayvan made her first appearance on the stage.

Geraldine Umar was engaged by D'O'Nelev Carte to take the part of Yum-Yum in the first American performance of The Mikado, given by an English company at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, and Zelle de Lussan took her place as the prima donna of the company. The repertoire was then extended to include Carmen, Mignon, The Daughter of the Regiment and other works of a kind to exhibit Miss de Lussan to advantage.

This attention to one member to the exclusion of the others was contrary to the policy of the company and led to its final disruption. Zelle de Lussan continued with the Boston Ideal. Miss Ober had previously retired from the concern and disposed of her interest.

Henry C. Barnabee, William Macdonald, Jessie Bartlett Davis, who had later joined the company, George Frothingham, and some of the less conspicuous members of the company formed the organization known as the Bostonians, and for a decade or more it was one of the most popular companies that toured this country.

The Boston Ideal Company was soon deserted by Zelle de Lussan, who went to London to sing at Covent Garden and never came back to the troupe, which soon after disbanded. The Bostonians struggled along without any great success until that lucky autumn in 1891 when they produced Robin Hood, which brought them a greater degree of prosperity than they had ever known before.

During the time that this opera was the principal work in the repertoire of the company many noted singers appeared in it. Camille D'Arville, Helen Bertram and Alice Nielson were some of the women.

Alice Nielson came to her first prominence in the production here of The Serenade, and after one year in the company left it to head the organization she called her own. This Herbert opera did more than anything else to restore the favor of the public to the Bostonians in other operas than Robin Hood. To this day there are certain to be large houses whenever it is sung, although it is not sufficient to furnish the repertoire for an entire season.

It was very difficult for the company to find a successor to this work. Mainly for that reason the company has during the past two seasons been accounted what is called "one night stand show."

Alice Nielson, Camille D'Arville and Grace Van Studdiford all left the company to become stars so soon as they had made a little reputation, and the company could not be kept up to its old standard.

It was said that the partners in the Bostonians when it was formed were Henry C. Barnabee, William Macdonald, Jessie Bartlett Davis and Tom Carl. The last named retired from the company when it was most prosperous and some years later Jessie Bartlett Davis got out. They probably fared better than any of the others, as they were not compelled to share any of the later losses on unsuccessful productions.

Comic opera has in any case all but disappeared from the stage, and the Bostonians were too staid to take to musical farce. So they have practically had only Robin Hood to depend on. Last year the organization was converted into a stock company.

It is a fairly safe prophecy that the Bostonians, if they would again revive Robin Hood before the old company was altogether disbanded, could draw large audiences for some weeks. Even the opera is good enough to stand performance by a new company, which would be a novelty to the public, as there are certain roles in the opera that have been always associated with certain singers and have never been sung by any others.

CORRESPONDENCE

NOTICE.—The Billboard desires a correspondent in every city and town in the United States which is not here represented.

BROOKLYN.

Montauk Theatre (Frank M. Hoyt, Mgr.) Robert Edeson in Ransom's Polly, was the attraction for week of May 2. The attraction came over direct from Manhattan and big business was the rule for the week. The attraction for week of May 9 will be Grace Van Studdford in The Red Feather, which will be the closing attraction at this theatre.

Grand Opera House (Lew Parker, Mgr.) Sullivan, Harris & Woods presented for week of May 2, Joe Welch in The Peddler. The company was a very good one and the attraction did a good week's business. The next attraction will be Keller The Great, which closes this house for the season.

Folly Theatre (Bennett Wilson, Mgr.) For week of May 2, The Field Amusement Company presented Wedded but no Wife. The attraction was a good drawing one. Next: Out of the Fold.

Park Theatre (Nick Norton, Mgr.) A Hidden Crime was presented by a very good company this week. The scenery and stage effects were very beautiful. Business was very good considering the warm weather. Next: The Signal Lights of Port Arthur.

Columbia Theatre (Dave A. Wels, Mgr.) Mr. Richard Buhler, supported by a first-class company, was seen in repitoe for week of 2. This actor is very popular in Brooklyn, and he was a strong drawing card. Next: The King of Detectives.

Bijou Theatre (Will McAllister, Mgr.) Edna May Spooner & Cecil Spooner supported by the stock company presented The Lady From Laramie to very good houses all the week. Next: Adrienne Lecouvreur.

Gotham (Chas. W. Williams, Mgr.) The Queen of the Highway had a good week's business. The company has been seen several times in Brooklyn this season, which made the attraction very popular here.

Hyde & Behmans (Archie H. Ellis, Mgr.) The management of this popular vaudeville house presents a very attractive bill for week of May 2. The headlines were, The Hengler Sisters, late of Glittering Gloria Company. Business was very good all the week. This house will close a very prosperous season on May 14. The closing week's bill will be: Rosario Guerrero, Sandor Trio, Eva Mudge, Barrows & Lancaster, Dillon Brothers, Finlay & Burke, Bison City Quartet, Mark Sullivan, Cal Carlton, and McMahon's Watermelon Girls.

Orpheum (Percy G. Williams, Mgr.) An excellent bill was given this week: The six Musical Cuttys were the headliners. The other artists were, James J. Morton, The Five Society Belles, Mason-Keller Co., A. O. Duncan, Stein-Erecto Family, Nora Bates, Hulbert Deagan, Eddie Mack, the Vitagraph and the extra attraction was Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew. Business continues excellent.

Watson's Cozy Corner (W. B. Watson, Mgr.) The Cozy Corner Stock Company presented Harry Montague's latest burlesque, entitled, The Seaside Belle, which was a very amusing burlesque. The principle parts were assumed by W. B. Watson, Jeanette Durpe, Elmer Tenley and Beatrice Harlow. The vaudeville bill was made up of the following: Sampson & Dellia, The Stewart Sisters, Foster and his dog, and Daisy Dumont. Business continues excellent.

Unique (Frank B. Carr, Mgr.) The Brooklyn Beauties Burlesque Company was the name of the attraction for this week at this house. The company was very good and the olio a large one.

Novelty Theatre (David Robinson, Mgr.) A vaudeville bill was presented at this house this week and good business was the rule. The artists that appeared were Billy B. Van & Rose Beaumont, Sherman & DeForest, Snyder & Buckley, Carlisle's Dogs and Ponies, Trovillo, The Britton Burrows Travis Co., and the Vitagraph.

BALTIMORE.

Ford's Opera House (Chas. E. Ford, Mgr.) Amelia Bingham played a return engagement in her new play Olympic scoring a great success. The play is handsomely embellished with elaborate scenery and beautiful costumes.

Academy of Music (Ninon & Zimmerman, Mgrs.) The opera company has scored a tremendous hit and drew crowded houses. The Singing Girl was presented with a change of cast. The work of the chorus was very good and the performance was thoroughly enjoyed.

The Lyon (Bernhard Ulrich, Mgr.) The fourth season of the Pops concerts opened in a blaze of glory.

Maryland Theatre (James L. Korman, Mgr.) One hundred members of the Baltimore Lodge of Eagles appeared in a mammoth minstrel performance for the benefit of raising a convention fund. The affair was a great success and deserves praise.

Holiday Street Theatre (Kerman Rife & Houck, Mgrs.) Hearts of Oak was presented by a competent company in a satisfactory manner, to good attendance.

Bijou Theatre (Fred Wilson, Mgr.) The Policy Players in The Bogus Prince, made a big hit and appeared to large audiences.

Monumental Theatre (James L. Korman, Mgr.) Watson's American Burlesquers appeared. The performance embraces the usual comedy features and was thoroughly enjoyed.

NOTES.

The Man From China was launched at Ford's Opera House last week and it goes to New York where it is destined for an indefinite run. The cast with several exceptions is a most competent one and the company is very large. The chorus well trained.

Alex Carr, who is appearing with Fulton Jolly Grass Widows, has been engaged by Hurlig and Seemon and will be featured in a big production next season.

The Nixon and Zimmerman Opera Company has made a tremendous hit. The house was crowded to capacity every night.

The regular dramatic season at Chase's Theatre has closed. The management is still undecided about the plans of opening the house next season.

The Baltimore Lodge of Elks is planning to enlarge its club house.

Mr. Jacques Frotelle, business manager for James K. Hackett, has closed his season and is now sojourning in this city. He is organizing a company that will tour the South.

CHICAGO.

The Parks and all outdoor places of amusement are making preparations for the summer season. Last summer the weather was against the outdoor attractions. It is to be hoped that this year it will be more in their favor. At the present time the weather is excellent, and the theatres are doing well.

Illinois—Frank Daniels never received a warmer welcome in Chicago than he has had during his present visit in the Illinois. Theatregoers have shown their admiration for the star and their appreciation of his new musical comedy, The Office Boy by crowding the theatre at every performance. The second week of Mr. Daniel's engagement began Sunday night, with every prospect of a continuation of prosperity.

Garlick—Those who have enjoyed that stirring story, The Virginian, can not fail to enjoy as much the play of the same name put in dramatic form by Kirk La Shelle, and disclosed Monday night in the Garlick, before a very large and appreciative audience. Dustin Farnum, as the Virginian, gave the part a portrayal that would satisfy the most exacting. Throughout the piece there are touches of real western humor that do not fail to strike fire. The first act scene, where six infants are mixed up and the fond parents leave the party only to find they have carried home the wrong babies, is ludicrous and amusing.

Powers—Augustus Thomas, the author of The Earl of Pawtucket, departed from the realm of frontier and military melodrama when he wrote the dramatic vehicle in which Lawrence Dorsay and his clever company appeared in Powers, Monday evening. The Earl of Pawtucket takes on a phase of originality that dispels all thought of the other portrayals of the accepted ideals of English noblemen. The Lord Cardington, of Mr. Dorsays may be taken as a travesty on British nobility, but in spite of this, he makes the part a character that grows upon the audience as the comedy progresses, until at the end one is compelled to regard him as a jolly good sort, notwithstanding his picturesque stupidity.

McVicker's—Checkers, entered on its last week in McVicker's Sunday evening, keeping up its record by packing the house. This attraction has had a very successful engagement. Next: The Silver Slipper.

Studebaker's—The Sho Gun is enjoying excellent patronage, notwithstanding it is in the second month of its run. Fred Williams will succeed Chris Brun next Monday evening in the role of William Henry Spangle, the American promoter. Anna Wilson, after a brief illness will return to the cast in the role of Hunn Bunn.

La Salle—Several changes have been made in the cast of The Royal Chief, in the La Salle. Blanche Homan retires. She has been succeeded by Ursula March, formerly with the Prince of Pilsen Co. Harry Leone, seen here with an English Lady last week replaced Matt C. Woodward as the rajah. Jot Kane who was with The Yankee Consul, has been engaged as understudy to Dave Lewis. The Royal Chief is having an immense run and will continue to do so for a long time.

Great Northern—Hoity Toity, one of the Webber & Fields concoctions of last season, is being given in the Great Northern this week by a company that includes several who appeared in the original production. The forces engaged in the presentation have been amusing large audiences. Next: His Last Dollar.

Bijou—In the Shadow of the Gallows, opened a week's engagement in playing to capacity at both performances. The breakwater scene, and a fast express train in full flight made a great hit, and brought forth rounds of applause.

Columbus—Miss Anne Sutherland was given an enthusiastic welcome in the Columbus, Sunday, where she returned as the leading woman of her own stock company in Camille. Miss Sutherland's admirers filled the house at both performances. The production was adequately produced. The supporting company is good. Next: A Scrap of Paper.

Bush Temple—Secret Service proved its drawing powers in Bush Temple, Sunday, when it filled the house at both performances. The production was an unusually good one and was picturesquely staged with a large number of Militiamen. Joseph Sullivan did some of the best work in which he has been seen this season as Capt. Thorne. Miss Mignon Porter, as Caroline Milford, the ingenue role, shined in the honors. The war drama was adequately mounted.

Hopkins—A Gambler's Daughter drew two good houses Sunday in Hopkins. It is a melodrama that seems to hold the attention of the audience. The serious side of the play is enlivened at intervals by songs and specialties. The company is headed by Miss Louise Dunbar.

Cleveland's—Manager Cleveland presented to the patrons of his handsome playhouse, Sunday, a program with a number of headliners. One would naturally suppose that it would be impossible to improve on the excellent entertainment of last week, but this week's offering is much better. Camille D'Arville heads the list, while Billy "Single" Clifford and Frederick Bond & Co., two other headliners figure very little behind her, either in ability or reputation. Others include Walbert and his horse Dahl, The Gregsons, Bertina & Walters, Eva Taguary, her fifth week at this house, and Edna Aug, who made such a hit last week enters in the second week of her engagement. Business is excellent; two performances are given daily.

Olympic—Vaudeville: Eight Vassar Girls, Shean and Warren, Avon Comedy Four, Smith and Fuller, Ferguson and Mack, William Jerome Mills, Loro and Payne, Naomi Ethardo, Princeton and Gill, The La Vards, Colfax Sisters, Charles Johnson.

Chicago Opera House—Dan McAvoy & Co., Thorne and Carleton, Adelaide Hermann, Three Crane Brothers, Johnson, Davenport, Lorella, Irving Jones and wife, Herbert Lloyd, Esmeralda Sisters, Warden and Gladdish, James A. Dunn, Delany and Daly, Hayman and Franklyn, Patti Brown.

Haymarket—Vaudeville: Cressy and Dayne, Genaro, Bailey & Co., Artie Hall, Wagner and Armin, Dave Nowlin, Frey and Fields, Tom Ripley, La Vine and Leonard, Topack and West, Hettie Kenton, Miller and Rentz and Billy Case.

Sam T. Jack's—Clark's Runaway Girl's began a week's engagement in Sam T. Jack's Sunday, playing to capacity at both performances. The performance opened with A King's Reception, a laughable farce in which Helen Russell, Babe Burg, Rosalie and Frank Murphy, assume the leading roles. The specialty program includes Darendra and Green, The Burg Sisters, The La Vails, Reynolds and Cuhl, and George Davis and Rosalie. The Final A Mixed Affair, is well staged and brilliantly costumed.

Trocadero—Al. Reeves and his company are playing their annual date in the Trocadero this week. Two new burlesques are staged. Both are brisk and breezy, and seem to more than satisfy the clientele of the house. A Chinese Sunnymoon and a Merry Go Round, in both are seen handsome faces and shapely forms. The vaudeville bill includes Evelyn Fenner, Andy Lewis, Maude Elliott & Co., Van Der Koor, Franne Hatcher, Newell Sisters, and Jolly Al. Reeves, with his well trained banjo in new songs and jokes.

NOTES.

Kuhn's Park will be a very attractive summer resort this season.

W. S. Cleveland has brought suit in the Circuit Court for $100,000 against Nance O'Neill and McKee Rankin for failure to carry out a contract for production of plays at the New Cleveland Theatre.

The Rouen's will be seen this summer in the parks in one of the most thrilling acts seen in many a day.

The Little Church Around the Corner will close the season in Jersey City, May 21.

A. H. HART.

WASHINGTON.

All of the theatres continue to have excellent audiences. For the last few seasons it has been the custom of several of the theatres to have some special late spring course, which holds the boards for about the last six weeks in the season, either in the form of comic opera, which is, as a rule, most popular, or the higher grade of drama. It is understood that the three theatres which have heretofore offered these attractions, are making preparations along the same lines for this season, and there is a possibility of a fourth entering the same field.

New National—Amelia Bingham in Olympe, has been drawing very good audiences. The entire company is a very good one, and in the part of Olympe, Miss Bingham has ample opportunities to display her ability.

Columbia—The Bostonians, in The Serenade, have been accorded good audiences. The company, as well as the opera, is too well known. Next: Herman the Great.

Academy of Music—James A. Herne's drama, Hearts of Oak, has drawn large audiences. The play is too well known to necessitate comment, while the manner in which it was handled was most excellent; pleasing scenic effects; very good performance.

Lafayette—Eugene Blair in, The Crust of Society, has been drawing fairly good audiences during this, her third week at the Lafayette.

Lyceum—The Jolly Grass Widows have given most excellent satisfaction, in fact, the performance was of a higher standard than had been anticipated; the scenery and electrical effects, excellent.

Grand—An unusually strong vaudeville bill headed by Dicky Bell and Mile Papell, has drawn good houses.

Empire—A Break for Liberty has drawn very good audiences, and was well entitled to even better. The entire cast is good and the play held the attention of the audience from start to finish; staging and scenery, good.

LOUISVILLE.

The Avenue Theatre (C. A. Shaw, Mgr.) The Moonshiner's Daughter is a stirring drama of the Cumberland Mountains. The cast is well selected and presents an excellent play. Next: Deserted at the Altar.

Masonic Theatre (C. A. Shaw, Mgr.)—Sweet Clover is an excellent company. The scenic effects are unusually beautiful. Next: Kate Chaxton in The Two Orphans.

Troupe, Hamilton Hill, Marion Winchester, Bioscope, Ruby Celeste and the Eight Snowdrops. London Hippodrome (H. E. Moss, Managing Director)—The Modern Hercules Sandow, Segommer, Marceline, Leonard Gautier, W. C. Fields, Jackson Family, James H. Lee, the Trappells, Harry Dio, Little Fred and dogs, Macarte Sisters and the Novellets.

Empire (H. J. Hitchins, Mgr.) has a capital program, with Austin Rudd, who heads the bill, supported by George Spry and Florrie Austin, the Miles Stavordale Quintet, banjoists, the Albert and Edmunds Troupe in The Tailor; the Swickards in a singing act; Vi Holmes, a charming dancer, and the Borellis in humorous tit-bits.

London Pavilion (Frank Glenister, Mgr.)—Dan Leno, Nat Travers, Marco, Mignon Tremaine, Francis, Josh Dixon, Howland, La Tosta, George Mozart, the Bensons, Ernesto, William Gourlay, Patti Frank's Troupe, Musical Avolos, Whit Cunliffe, the Raies and Company, Edwin Boyde, Chiffre Berzac and the great Ida Rene.

Tivoli—R. G. Knowles, Sisters Govell, Lillie Soutter, G. M. Hamilton, Oswald Sisters Duce Day, Sisters Anderlon, George Lashwood, Bella and Bijou, Harry Randall, Nellie Wallace, Harry Lauder, Florence Esdalle, Tom Moore, Will Evans, Poluski Brothers, Happy Fanny Fields, George Robey and Werner and Reider.

The Oxford (Albert Gilmer, Mgr.)—R. G. Knowles, Marie Lloyd, George Robey, Happy Fanny Fields, Harry Randall, Lily Burnand, Harry Lauder, Gus Elen, George Lashwood, Mark Sheridan, Maud Vera, the Poluskis, Bella and Bijou, Alice Lloyd, Sisters Govell, Paddy Whiski Fox, Werner and Reider, Harriet Veron and the McNaughtons.

Metropolitan—The world's champion wrestler Hackensmidt, Harry Randall, Harry Lauder, Harriet Vernon, Belle Davis, Four Avolos, Starr and Leslie, Hughes and Kenton, Little Ganty, Jack Charman, Morney Cash, Ray Hartley, Will Musgrave, Fred Poplar, Sisters Bsanquet, Kitty Wager and Ethel Arder and George Abel Company in a sketch, Three of a Kind.

THEATRES.

His Majesty's—The Darling of the Gods. Adelphi—The Earl and the Girl. Gaiety—The Orchid. Daly's Theatre—The Cingalee. St. James Theatre—Saturday to Monday. Criterion—The Duke of Killcrankie. Wyndham's—His Excellency, the Governor. Garrick—The Arm of the Law. New Theatre—My Lady of Rosedale and Mrs. Hilary's Regrets. Vaudeville—The Cherry Girl. Court Theatre—The Two Gentlemen of Verona.

Comedy Theatre—Sunday. Savoy Theatre—The Love Birds. Lyric Theatre—The Duchess of Dantzic. Apollo Theatre—The Wheat King. Imperial Theatre—A Queen's Messenger and Miss Elizabeth's Prisoner.

NOTES.

Messrs. Gaumont and Messter have perfected an apparatus, i. e., a combination of a cinematograph and gramophone working together, showing the action to the voice of the speaker. A private view was given at the Grand Theatre, Fulham, with great success.

The police court cases against the directors of the Alhambra and the Empire Theatre of varieties for performing stage plays, ballets and pantomimes without authority from the Lord Chamberlain, have again been postponed.

On Thursday, 28th inst., Edward Terry, after two years absence from town, opens his own theatre with the following program: At 8:15 p. m., Cyrus Q. Blake, a new comedietta in one act, by Gilbert Doyle; at 9 p. m., The House of Burnside, a new play in three acts, adapted by Louis N. Parker.

The Clement Scott matinee has been postponed until the latter part of June in order that Sir Henry Irving's offer to appear may be taken advantage of. Our dramatic knight's co-operation will no doubt prove of immense assistance.

Frank Curzon will produce Owen Hall's new musical comedy, Sergeant Breve, at the Strand Theatre on May 21. The irresistible Willie Edouin will appear as the Sergeant. The cast includes Arthur Williams, Farren Soutar, Marie Dainton, Olive Morell and Ethel Irving.

The Italian exhibition at Barns Court will be opened on Wednesday, May 11, by our Lord Mayor and Sheriffs in full state.

The King's Prize, a new two-act opera, the music by Alex. Maclean, will be produced on Friday evening, April 29, at the Royalty Theatre.

After many trials and tribulations, the Royal Music Hall, Holborn, has been bought by the George Adney Payne syndicate. Popular prices and two houses a night system will be adopted.

of dramatic work should continue for many nights longer.

Mr. Edward Terry, after a two years' absence, will open his own theatre April 20. He appeared in The House of Burnside, a new three-act play adapted by Louis N. Parker. The play will be preceded by a new one-act sketch, Cyrus G. Blake.

Miss Edna May's impersonation of the doll in La Poupée, was a fine surprise and delight in the revival at The Prince of Wales' Theatre on April 12. Even without a cast of such favorite artists, La Poupée's past success would be a sure guarantee for the future.

Judging from the bright swing with which A Chinese Honeymoon still goes at the Strand Theatre, it is almost difficult to imagine that phenomenally successful musical play, has passed its 1,000th performance.

MANCHESTER, ENGLAND NOTES

Royal (Mr. Oscar Barrett, Mgr.)—Mr. Tree's company with the sublime play (Tabstoy's) Resurrection, played at this house week of April 20. This is its third welcome visit here, and it commanded large audiences. The play was splendidly presented.

Next: Janet A. Church and company. Prince's (Mr. Oscar Barrett, Mgr.)—Mr. Mouillet's Principal Company presented the always welcome comedy, The Gelsha, week of April 20 and was most successful.

Next: The Country Girl. Gately (Mr. Oscar Barrett, Mgr.)—Miss Olga Nethersole and her company played Sapho, which proved a big attraction the week of April 20. On April 21 the first production of a new play, The Flute of Pan by Miss Nethersole and her company, was a very pleasing performance.

Queens—The Twin Sisters the week of April 20 proved an entertaining drama. St. James—Mr. J. A. Atkins and company in The Grip of Iron, was on a return trip here week of April 20, and was a powerful drama.

Grand Junction—The Swiss Express, Messrs. Renad's company, week of April 20 was a very good play. Osborne—A Soldier and A Man attracts good business week of April 20.

Victoria (Broughton)—Miss Grace Warner and company the week of April 20 appeared in a new musical play The New Commander, and the play proved a success.

Palace—The bill for week of April 20 was as follows: Mr. Fred Storey and his company in their sketch Rip Van Winkle; Severas Schaffner, a smart juggler; Albert Lee, the comedian and other good turns prove worthy.

Tivoli—Miss Lulu Mackay, American comedian, is featured and scores hugely. Zarmo, juggler, Alma Jones and the Sivorni trio are here for the week of April 20.

Grand—The Royal Tokio Troupe of Japanese jugglers is the chief attraction, but other actors form a pleasing program here the week of April 20.

Regent—Chas. Bignell is the chief attraction, while Alfonso Zerard and his lions and blood-hounds come in for a share of the applause. The other acts for the week of April 20 are very good.

Empire (Oldham)—The Fatal Wedding, with Bert Coots and company behind the footlights, for the week of April 20 pleases good houses.

Next: White Star Company, to fine business. Steel Pier—Band concert, basket ball, etc., to big business.

Steeple Chase Pier.—Manager Giles Clements has a fine list of attractions and novelties always on hand that crowds the beautiful Pier at all times.

Savoy Theater.—Huntley Moore Company, in Uncle Tom's Cabin, was the drawing magnet that caused the S. R. O. to appear often during the week.

Dentzels Galloping Horses, crowded at all times. This is a great novelty. Ingersoll Roller Coaster is doing big, also the Laughing Gallery.

The American Garden and Old Viena doing big. The Free Arcade with the hundreds of Novelties and automatic contrivances is packed at all hours.

The Old Mill, Baby Incubator, Alligator Farm, Hall of Fame, and Haunted Tavern are doing nicely.

The Johnston Flood is fast getting in shape and presents a realistic appearance. It will be a big winner.

NOTES.

Col. Joe Owens, manager of the Farmers' County Fair, one of last seasons successes arrived April 30 with a fine display of barn yard stock for his new county fair.

Mgr. William Denzel left on April 28 for Chattanooga, Tenn. where his firm is placing a new $35,000 galloping horse outfit. Everything looks bright and encouraging for the season of 1904. The big semi centennial in June 15-18 will bring thousands here.

FRANK B. HUBIN.

KANSAS CITY, MO.

The Willis Wood (The Woodward & Burgess Amusement Co., Mgrs.) Richard Mansfield in repertoire, 2-4, attracted houses of excellent size. The productions were great. Next: Maude Adams.

The Grand (Hudson & Judah, Mgrs.) Ben Hendricks in Eric of Sweden did fairly well week of 1. Supporting company good but play not suited to talents of the company. Next: Edwin Holt in The Cardinal.

The Gilliss (E. S. Brigham, Mgr.) A rattling good melodrama is The Stain of Guilt, which attracted good business week of 1. J. A. Heenan, Wm. Tully, Ned Leavitt, Peter Graig, Mattie Lockett, are good. Next: Kersand's Minstrels.

The Auditorium (The Woodward and Burgess

Amusement Co., Mgrs.) The Woodward Stock Company opened its sixth annual season, 1, to big business which ruled throughout the week. The Masqueraders was the bill, which gave satisfaction. Next: The Cowboy and The Lady.

The Orpheum (Martin Lehman Mgr.) Emmet Corrigan and company in a good sketch headed the bill week of 1, which attracted customary big business. Others were: Truly Shattuck, Burke & Larue, Esmeralda, Belle Gordon, Pierce & Rosslyn, and Tiffany's dogs. Next feature (closing week) Blind Tom.

The Century (Joseph J. Barrett, Mgr.) Trocadero Burlesquers fared very well week of 1. The two burlesques found much favor as did the olio. Next: The Blue Ribbon Girls.

Convention Hall (Louis W. Shouse, Mgr.) So great was the hit made by the Patterson and Brainerd Carnival Company with their ten days indoor carnival, that the show continued throughout week of 1, making in all a seventeen day stand to the biggest kind of business. Nothing scheduled in the near future.

NOTES.

Grace Larue, of Burke & Larue, who played the Orpheum week of 1, was the guest of honor at a number of social functions given during her stay here.

Harry Long, stage manager of the Woodward Stock Company, with his talented wife, Mary Hill, will join the Omaha Neb. stock company at the close of his present engagement.

For unknown reasons, The Buckskin Bill Wild West Show aggregation after being heavily billed to appear here 2, 3, failed to show up. Gentry Brothers have the town posted, announcing their coming 11-13.

Forest Park, opens up 8. Manager Brown announces many new attractions, among which are, Tug-of-war-on-wheels, Katzenjammer Castle, Back to the Mines, and Helter-Skelter. Earl Flynn, a local boy who has been with Ward & Vokes this season has returned, and will spend the summer here.

JERSEY CITY, N. J.

Bon Ton.—(T. W. Dinkins, Mgr.) Imperial Burlesquers, April 25-30 to fair houses. The company is fair with special scenery. The costumes and paper are great. For the remainder of the season every Friday night is amateur's night which packs the house and is making a big hit. S. R. O. coming; Merry Maidens Burlesque, 2-7; London Belles Burlesque, 9-11.

Bijou.—(J. W. Holmes, Mgr.) The Sign of the Cross, 25-30 pleased. The company and costumes are very good and nicely arranged. Coming—Only A Shop Girl, May 2-7; Jersey City Police, Mutual Aid Benefit, 9-14.

Coming—Out of the Fold, 2-7; The Little Mother, 9-14. Note—Barnum and Bailey show arrived in Jersey City, May 2, for one day. They gave two performances to S. R. O. They omitted the street parade because the lot was in a very bad condition and the wagons were sunk in mud up to the hubs. The show was excellent in general and pleased all who saw it.

Jersey City being the first place the show put up at after leaving greater New York, the people saw the very same as was produced in New York. The circus left for Paterson, N. J.

ST. PAUL, MINN.

Metropolitan (L. N. Scott, Mgr.)—Viola Allen in Twelfth Night, 28-30, pleased big houses. Never has this Shakespearean comedy been produced here with a better cast, nor has one been seen on such a lavish scale. Fritz Scheff in Babette, 2-4, was greeted by packed houses; very pretty music; good clean comedy and a beautiful stage production. Coming, The Silver Slipper, 5-7. E. H. BOSTON.

Colonial Theatre—Weber & Fields. Company greatly weakened by absence of Mr. L. Field; house fair.

Majestic Theatre—Ward & Vokes in A Pair of Pinks, 2d. week; capacity house.

Palace Theatre—Cherry Blossom Burlesquers. This week marks the closing of the regular season at this theatre.

Hollis Street Theatre—N. C. Goodwin in A Gilded Fool was greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience in the comedy which has been his strongest success both financially and artistically.

Grand Opera House—A Little Mother; strong drama; well received.

Keith's—The Badettes Woman's Orchestra. This favorite musical organization is a tremendous drawing card. S. E. O. Boston Musical Hall—When Women Love, 2. It was interesting and sensational with a strong cast headed by Frank Munnell.

Boston Theatre—Babes in Toyland began its third big week.

Tremont Theatre—Henry W. Savage's annual spring production, Woodland; continues to please. It is the verdict that Mr. Savage has another winner in this latest musical production. Geo. Marlon who staged the piece, has shown his usual skill.

Notes—A. Johnson who is one of a double quartet with Ward & Vokes show at the Majestic, received a gold beaded silk umbrella and a magnificent basket of flowers.

John L. Sullivan, The Big Fellow, had a benefit at the Boston Theatre last Thursday afternoon, at which there were gathered all the leading fighters of the world.

WARRENTON.

BUTTE, MONT.—Broadway Theatre (Dick P. Sutton, Mgr.) The Silver Slipper, 24, 25, to packed audience; one of the best comic operas ever seen in this city. The company is large and capable, the music catchy, the costumes and stage settings are beautiful, and the chorus well drilled and graceful. The performance was received with a great deal of appreciation.

Grand Opera House (Dick P. Sutton, Mgr.) The program for week of May 1, is an interesting one. It includes Miss Scott, a recent importation from Ireland; M. Vardaman, a clever female impersonator; Mrs. E. Bishop, in a barnyard song; Farmer Jones at a cock fight; The London Sisters, in a high class novelty act, introducing singing and whistling; Bernard Williams, a comedian of rare ability, and Farmer Jones' pig. This act alone is worth double the price of admission, and must be seen to be appreciated. As usual, packed houses.

Empire Theatre (Dick P. Sutton, Mgr.) An interesting olio was made up of Morrison, in new songs; Shore Acres & St. Claire, clever and up-to-date comedians; Daly & Kelso, the two black-birds in a clever skit entitled, A Hot Time; Scheonwerk, the man of mystery; Dave Williams & Clara Hammer, in the society sketch, A Bluff at Acting, and a new line of moving pictures pleased a large house at opening performance for week of May 1.

Family Theatre (C. E. Alsop, Mgr.) This theatre, under new management, newly cleaned and fitted up, opened as a popular price house, 25. An excellent bill for the opening week legitimized large houses. The olio included M. A. Snow, in vocal selections; Mason and Tilburn, Dutch comedy sketch artists; Vincent Kralik, a novelty juggler; Hughes & Kenton, The Dark Horse; Gordon & Hays, in a clever skit entitled, The Actress and the Maid; Howard & Campbell, Roman ring artists.

RANTOUL, ILL.—Neal Opera House (Jack Neal, Mgr.)—Robert Sherman in My Friend from Arkansas, 28, to good house; performance creditable.

EARL CARY.

PHILADELPHIA.

Proof that the managers of Philadelphia are not going to take any chances with the weather this year is apparent, when two of the leading theatres have already closed their doors and others are scheduled to follow in short order. The Garrick and Broad Street Theatres are both shut up for the balance of the season and the Auditorium is to close up May 14. The other houses are piling along and arranging to close at the first evidence of warm weather. When the Parks open on May 28, there will be a grand rush to close up the theatres.

Chestnut Street Opera House—The public did not take to the revival of Uncle Tom's Cabin, and the engagement is to close on May 7, although it was originally intended to run far into the summer. Lederer's, At The Barbecue is announced for week of May 9.

Chestnut Street Theatre—Richard Carle in The Tenderfoot opened well, 2, and will continue for another week.

Walnut Street Theatre—A China Doll is doing a nice business and the run will be continued indefinitely.

Park Theatre—Miss Bob White has settled down for a long stay at this house, and business keeps up to a very high notch. It will run well into the Summer.

Auditorium—Sis Hopkins had a very profitable week, 7, and for week of 9, Why Women Sin, will be the last attraction of a very profitable season.

Grand Opera House—Parsifal is doing fairly well this week and for week of 9. Sky Farm is announced.

National Theatre—Jesse James had a good week, and for the next week, 8 Belles is scheduled.

Peoples Theatre—Florence Ridley is this week's attraction in The Midnight Marriage, and next week, Irene Myers will be seen in repertoire.

Kensington Theatre—Mammie Fleming is doing well at this house. The bill this week is True Hearts of Ireland. Princess Patches, next.

Forepaugh's Theatre—The Master of the Mine is the attraction this week. Parsifal will be given next week.

Keith's Bijou Theatre—The Stock Company is doing well at this house. The Last Paradise will be followed by The Last Word.

Standard Theatre—The Stock Company is putting on A Life's Story, to be followed by The Price of Honor.

Keith's New Theatre—While other theatres are thinking of closing, this house is only getting ready for its summer season which is always a big one. Vaudeville will be continued all Summer. This house does not close its doors at all.

Eleventh Street Opera House—Dumont's Minstrels are still drawing big crowds and the timely burlesquers they put on are very entertaining to the regular patrons. The season will close the latter part of May.

Lycium Theatre—Burlesquers continue to attract attention at this house. The Thoroughbreds are drawing good houses this week, and for week of 9, The Brigadiers will be the attraction. When the Wheel Shows close, the management will put on stock burlesque to run all summer.

Trocadero Theatre—The Dainty Deuchess burlesquers are drawing big crowds this week and will be succeeded by The Tiger Lillies.

Star Theatre—The Fads and Follies are doing nicely this week, and the house will be kept open for the rest of the season with stock burlesque.

Museum—Business keeps up to a profitable point at this house with vaudeville and curios. Arch Street Theatre—The German Stock Company continues to draw fair houses, but will close in a few weeks. As soon as the house closes, Charles E. Blaney takes hold and starts many improvements preparatory to opening next season as a melodramatic house.

BOB WATT.

ST. LOUIS.

The opening of the World's Fair having come and the first week past, a review of what is and what has been seen is opportune. First let us review the opening day with an attendance officially of 187,000. It was a record breaker in this feature. That everyone who attended was well pleased is manifested by the exceedingly complimentary comments of the highest authorities of the United States. Skill and art is visible in every structure and exhibit that was shown, chief of these features is the beautiful Cascade Gardens, with millions of gallons of water splashing their way over these mammoth basins and presenting a picture that has never before been conceived or looked upon. Yet this is but one of the many that we saw. A mammoth bird cage is easily another feature, this structure towering 180 feet high and covering about an acre of ground. It contains every species of birds known to the world. Then familiar to our eyes is the mammoth Ferris Wheel, the same one we saw in Chicago, only its location being better, it appears again as large and can be seen towering over everything on the grounds. The buildings are replete with exhibits of the highest merit and great variety, and with such a varied and artistic array of architecture, they in themselves are worth a visit. Sectionally located are the buildings of the different states of the United States, and those of the foreign countries, all of which have surpassed any previous efforts. No exposition has been so completely favored with extensive exhibits as is this. Now we reach the Pike, the amusement feature of the exposition, and the section that no visitor is going to overlook. Although it will take two weeks to find all of these places really, their part of the first week's feature began most encouraging. The parade of the concessionaires on opening day was a most complete success and more to establish the fact that what they have was genuine than any words could convey. Mr. Fred Cummins is to be congratulated upon the excellent arrangement of this parade, which consisted of: Mr. Gaston Akoun and his Asia; Mr. Felix and the Palais Du Costume; Mr. Fred Sargent and Hagenbeck's Animals; Mr. Hale and his Fire Fighters; Mr. Ferdinand Akoun and his Foolish House; Mr. Joseph Hardy and his Baby Incubator; Mr. Neimly and his Cairo and Constantinople; Mylas Murphy and his Irish Village; Maurice Tobin and his Cliff Dwellers; Mr. St. Clair and his Old St. Louis; Tompkins and his Rough Rider; Mr. Stone and his Paris and France, Under and Over the Sea; Ancient Rome, Chinese Village, Fair Japan; Jim Kay, the Educated Horse; Herentier, Seville; Galveston Flood, Majestic Whirlpool; Glass Weavers, Tyrolean Alps, New York to North Pole, Movish Palace, Boyton's Chutes, Creation.

Naval Exhibition, Battle Abbey, Russian Village, The Esquimaux, Cummins Indian Congress and Wild West. The parade stretched three miles in length. Although only a portion of these were ready for business, the business done has been remarkable for the short space of time open. In conclusion let it be heralded about that many surprises are in store for those that visit the Pike. Combine all of the above in your minds and then look at it at night with millions upon millions of electric lights, and you see a Fairyland, a heaven on earth, a veritable paradise. You have never saw its equal, and possibly never will. It is a great World's Fair, in a great city and inhabited by great people, an emphatic success.

THEATRES.

The down town theatres are all open, and with good attractions, yet only a fair business is being done by them. This is caused probably by the excitement caused at the opening of the fair and the warm weather.

Century Theatre—Marie Cahill in Nancy Brown. Good company and good show. Return date. Checkers next.

Olympic Theatre—Francis Wilson, Marguerite Sylva and Jessie Bartlett Davis in a revival of Ernani. Here for two weeks; splendid company and performance.

Odeon—Shay Opera Company playing repertoire. Good company and splendid performance. Only fair business is being done.

Grand Opera House—Geo. Evans in The Good Old Summer Time. Same company and good as ever. Return date. Business satisfactory.

York State Folks, next.

Columbia Theatre—A good bill comprises: Watson Hutchings and Edwards, Josephine Gasman, Clarence Vance, Martinetti and Gross, Castalat and Hall, Carleton and Terre, Ward and Curran, Kelly and Kent, Anderson and Briggs, Schenk Bros, Hank and Lottie Whitcomb. Bill pleases; business good.

Crawford Theatre—Sag Harbor is on for a week. Company capable and pleases. Business satisfactory.

Havlin Theatre—Slaves of the Mines for one week. Good performance and pleases; capable company. Business fair. Stain of Guilt, next.

Imperial Theatre—Remember the Main, opened for a week. Company fair. Seen here before. Business satisfactory. Moonshiner's Daughter, next.

Standard Theatre—Blue Ribbon Girls, for a week, opening Sunday. Good company, with this big olio: Le Roy and La Vaulon, Cook and Hays, Orhand Fern, Ward and Bradburn, Krouse and Rosa, and The Flying Barnards. Splendid show in every respect. Business good. Irwin's Majestics, next.

Globe Theatre—A. C. Larriev, James and Davis, Kittle Kirkman, Papier and Knapp, Brook and Young, and Emma La Tow, comprises the bill at the Globe. Program pleased, and good business is the rule.

Broadway Musee—Dancing Girls of all Nations, is the chief attraction in the Curlo Hall. The vaudeville theatre is also a good part of the show. Business has been big all week.

SUMMER GARDENS.

All but two of the summer gardens opened on last Sunday, and enormous crowds was the rule at them all.

Forrest Park Highlands—Frederick Bowers, Mile, Tekia, Emil Wahlund, Leo and Chapman, Meelian's Dogs, Dixon Brothers, and Cordua and Maude. All the side attractions began with big business, and proves the Highlands to be as popular as ever.

Delmar Gardens—Band Concert and a complete midway was enjoyed immensely by record attendance. The midway is doing an immense business. The spectacular production of Louisiana opens here on the 15th.

West End Heights—This park opened Sunday to big business and a good vaudeville program composed of Mae Currie Prell, Doherty's Poodles, Three Walsey's, Frank La Mondue, Cliff Dean & Co., Dorothy Kenton and Hilbert & Warren. Program pleased immensely, and everything started with a rush.

NOTES.

Mannon's Park will open its season May 15, Archie M. Cot, will manage again this season. Suburban Garden opens its season May 22, with High class Vaudeville. Rice and Crawford will manage it.

Lemp's Park will open with high class Vaudeville, June 30. J. L. Walrapp will again manage it.

Ferari Bros. Carnival Company will leave St. Louis for the road on May 6. They take with them the best wishes for a successful tour from every one in St. Louis. They have mingled with us for two winters and the hospitality as well as the merit of their show made us all interested in their success. A hearty welcome awaits their return in the fall.

Hushagen's Park will open on May 8, with vaudeville and a complete coney Island. Shoot the Chutes, and other attractions. This will be a feature in the Summer Garden line this season.

Wilder and Fisher control Cane Rack, Palmistry, Doll Rack and Gypsy Camp attractions at Mannon's Park for this summer, they also have the Temple of Palmistry at Forrest Park Highlands.

WILL J. FARLEY.

LOS ANGELES, CAL.—Mason Opera House (H. C. Wyatt, Lessee and Mgr.) Four Choans in Running For Office, May 1, is making a real hit. The play with its immense cast numbering seventy persons is an assured success.

Burbank Theatre (Oliver Morosco, Lessee and Mgr.) The New Baker Theatre Company appear in the well-known dramatized version of Du Maurier's Trilby, which was extremely well received by a large audience, opening night. The performance is entertaining and is in the hands of capable and conscientious artists.

Grand Opera House (Winfield Hogobon, Mgr.) Isabel Irving is the attraction this week. She is assisted by a strong company of players in the presentation of The Crisis. It is ably presented and will run for three nights.

STREET FAIRS & EXPOSITIONS

ON THE PIKE AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

At the extreme western end of the Pike at the World's Fair is a concession that cannot fall to thrill even the most phlegmatic of spectators. It is called Hale's Fire Fighting Exhibition, and it is something entirely new in the amusement and instructive field. It is a practical illustration of the work of skilled firemen in the performance of their duties. A model engine house is in full view of the audience, and when a large four story building supposedly situated in the center of the business district of New York bursts into flames, the response to the alarm can be noted in every detail. The firemen sliding down the poles, the quick hitch of the horses and the rushing forth of the apparatus to the scene of the fire furnishes a most interesting entertainment.

Aside from the exhibition proper is a large curio hall, in which is a collection of fire apparatus from all parts of the world, among which is the old hand engine which George Washington helped to draw, and which is loaned to Chief Hale by the Veteran Firemen of Richmond, Va.

George Hale, for many years chief of the fire department at Kansas City, Mo., and the inventor of much valuable fire appliances, is the originator of this exhibit, he has with him the pick of the fire department of Kansas City. Most of these men accompanied Chief Hale on his tour of Europe some years ago when he met and defeated in tournaments the best fire brigades of Europe. In many instances these men performed the allotted task in as many seconds as their opponents took minutes. The record made by the Kansas City men in the Crystal Palace, London, has never been beaten. A restaurant with a seating capacity of 3,000 people is a part of this concession.

Chief Hale has spent many years and much money in this exhibition, which is certainly the most complete of its kind in this country, if not in the world.

The attendance for the first few days since the fair opened, has been remarkable and visitors are thoroughly pleased.

WILL J. FARLEY.

FAIR NOTES.

The Central Maine Fair Association will be held at Waterville, shortly.

The Bedford County (Penn.) Fair Association was recently incorporated by twenty-two citizens of that county.

Several changes have been made in the management of the Fond du Lac, Wis. County Fair Association. J. W. Watson, Secy., J. T. Dana, Supt. of Gates.

The stockholders of the new fair association at Rockford, Ill., have organized and incorporated under the laws of the United States. G. H. Shram was made president.

The management of the North Dakota State Fair Association has decided to hold their fair at Mandan the latter part of September. Mr. O. H. Killand, secretary, desires correspondence from side show and other attractions.

William Demland, secretary of the Hancock County Agricultural Society, of Findley, Ohio, is assisting in organizing the Western Ohio Fair Circuit, composed of the counties of Erie, Hancock, Wood, Warren, Richland, Huron and Lorain. F. H. Zerbi, of Erie, was elected president.

Letters are being sent to the citizens of Dallas, Tex., asking for the additional $15,000 worth of stock which must be sold before the new state fair can be organized. If this amount is raised, the city of Dallas will close its deal for the purchase of the fair grounds. The proposition has been favorably voted upon and the management is quite confident favorable responses will be received.

The contract for the construction of the new building at the State Fair grounds, at Des Moines, Iowa, for which an appropriation was made by the legislature, was let April 23 by the State Board of Agriculture, for $46,914. The general contract was let to Charles Weitz & Son, and the iron and structural work to the Modern Steel Structure Co. The Weitz bid was $38,194 and the bid of the Modern Steel Structure Co. was $3,720. Mr. Weitz stated that the present labor trouble in Des Moines would not interfere with the work and that operations would be commenced at once. From seventy-five to one hundred men will be employed on the building.

The successful street fairs held in Gallatin, Tenn., the past three years have led up to the organization of the Sumner County Fair & Sale Association, of which Ernest E. Chrisman, is secretary, and its first annual fair will be held August 31-Sept. 2. The amphitheatre and buildings will be first-class in every particular, and the premium list will be the most liberal ever offered in this section. Fake games and sideshows will be wholly and entirely eliminated, but the association is now ready to engage two or three special attractions, and parties having something that will draw the people, and are clean and wholesome, might communicate with him.

Prosecutor Ulery, of Toledo, Ohio, has been instructed by the county commissioners to bring suit to recover the fair grounds from the Toledo Exposition Co. The action is brought at the request of the Lucas County Agricultural Society. The exposition company has a 15-year lease on the property which consists of 52 acres. It is claimed that the lease is invalid, in that the county commissioners never signed it. The county is not getting a cent of taxes or rent from the property. Aside from this, it is held that the terms of the lease were not followed, in that the fairs as intended were not held. The agricultural society is anxious to get possession of the grounds for fair purposes, but the commissioners think it might be cheaper to sell the property and secure a cheaper site.

LEADING FACTS ABOUT WORLD'S FAIRS.

Columbian Exhibition, Chicago, 1893; 613 acres; 150 buildings; cost $40,000,000.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES.

It is reported that two Parisian marble statues in the sculpture exhibit of France at the World's Fair were recently destroyed by vandals.

According to a statement issued by the department of concessions of the World's Fair, it will cost $20 for the total admissions to all the attractions on The Pike. The total cost to see the Chicago Midway attraction was $35.

Emile Terquem, who is to be in charge of the French book exhibit at the St. Louis Fair, gained his first exposition experience 30 years ago, when the Cercle de la Librairie chose him to look after the French exhibit at the Centennial Exposition, and later at the Chicago in 1893, and filled the same position at the Paris fairs of 1878, 1889, and 1900.

Cass Gilbert, of New York, architect of the Art Palace and Festival Hall at the World's Fair, recently tendered his resignation to President Francis as a member of the commission of architects. Immediately after tendering his resignation, Mr. Gilbert brought suit against the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Co. in the United States Circuit Court to secure $47,000, which he alleges is due him as the balance on his contract of $78,000.

Street Fairs & Carnivals

MUNDY SHOW IN WRECK.

The train carrying the Mundy Carnival Co., was wrecked about noon on Saturday, May 1, at Wynadott, Ark., enroute to Birmingham, by running into a local freight train on the Iron Mountain Railroad. Every wagon except two was thrown out of the chocks and the gondola engine jumped from one car to another. Not a wagon left the cars. Only ten people were injured and with the exception of Lawrence Wilson, (Manager) and C. J. Oakes and Mrs. V. D. Levitt they received only slight bruises. Over 50 people were sitting or lying on the flat cars at the time and it was a miracle that no one was killed. The injured are as follows: C. J. Oakes, Muncie Zouave, face badly cut; Lawrence Wilson, one of Manglen Troupe, slight concussion of the brain; Octava Gallager, leg sprained; Mrs. A. P. Whitney, sprained ankle; Mrs. Victor D. Levitt, internally; E. A. Evans, back sprained; J. P. Coker, shoulder bruised; Capt. Ricardo, arm bruised; Arthur Holdin, shoulder bruised; W. K. Davis, eye cut; J. D. Millman, cheek cut.

The wreck was cleared away in several hours and the train arrived in Memphis at 7:00 p. m. The wreck was caused, according to reports received, by the fact that the crew on each train was unaware of the close proximity of the other.

Wm. Judkins Hewitt, writes from Lafollette, Tenn.: I am here on a visit to the Monumental Carnival Co. This company has been out all winter and braved the storms of a most disastrous and severe season, but now seem to be on the road to prosperity, for they indeed have a very nice little company and are especially well fortified in the managerial staff. Many names that are well known to street fair showmen, are in the roster of this company. I wish them well.

The Hatch Adams Carnival Company opened the season May 2 at Washington, Ind. The streets were crowded with people who were out for a good time. Business was exceedingly gratifying to the management. Sixteen shows with brand new fronts and two free attractions are carried. An attractive ballyhoo is being used by one of the shows, consisting of sixteen ponies walking tandem on a ladder rigged up outside the tent. It is reported that almost 5,000 people attended the opening day.

Notes from the C. A. Morris Glass Pavilion with the Robinson Amusement Co.: This is our second season with Mr. Robinson, and we have been in winter quarters at the fair grounds in Carthage, near Cincinnati, where we repaired and repainted for our opening here. Dames T. Jukes, the well known glass blower, joined us at Carthage and his glass engine is a beauty. Our roster is as follows: Chas. A. Morris, manager; H. L. Bush, trusser, and a orator; glass blowers, Dames T. Jukes, Miss Etta Larow, Sylvester Feste and Harry C. Lee, who has charge of the souvenir stand.

The Royal Amusement Co., opened its season in Monticello, Ill., May 2. Beautiful weather was the forerunner of a thriving week's business. The following shows reported for the opening: Hassard & Lane's Old Plantation; Millan's Trip to the Center of the Earth, (Joe Millan, Mgr.); Thelma, the maid of the air, (Frank McClannain, Mgr.); Shoel, spectacular fire dancer, (I. G. Miller, Mgr.); James Noonan's beautiful electric palace; Don's White's animal arena; Logue & Steeb's improved steam riding gallery; John Colhaus, ferris wheel and Prof. George T. Lucas, director of the Royal Amusement Co.'s Military Concert Band of 14 pieces. The company has all high class attractions and a prosperous season is looked to.

PARKS

PLEASURE RESORTS & SUMMER GARDENS

PARK NOTES.

Quinn Park at Pryer Creek, I. T., was opened April 29 by the I. O. O. F.

Chelso Peruchi will open Chillowee Park Theatre at Knoxville, Tenn., May 20.

A $12,000 roller coaster is to be added to Winona Beach at Bay City, Mich., shortly.

Washington Park Theatre at Bayonne, N. J., opens May 14 with high class vaudeville.

Oak Summit Park will open about the middle of June at Evansville, Ind. M. Moram, is manager.

Dobling Park, Springfield, Mo., opened May 1. Many new buildings have been added during the winter.

Spring Grove Park, Springfield, Ohio, is undergoing extensive improvements. The theatre will be opened May 30.

Columbia Gardens at Butte, Mont., opened Apr. 29 with a grand ball. Music by the Boston and Montana Bands.

Central Park, Helena, Mont., is being put in a first-class condition. A stage is being constructed for summer performances.

Gus Achtman, property master of the Walnut Theatre at Cincinnati, will be stage manager at the vaudeville pavilion at Chester Park this summer.

Wenona Beach Park at Bay City, Mich., opens May 29 under the management of W. J. Richards. A roller coaster, said to cost $12,000, is being placed.

Lakemont Park at Altoona, Pa., will open May 30. The theatre is being remodeled and will open June 8. The capacity of the pavilion is 2,000 people.

Fifty-two acres of beautiful country near Los Angeles, Cal., was recently purchased by the Schutzen Association and converted into a park, which opened April 24.

It is said that a party of eastern capitalists has secured a lease on Sharpshooter's Park at Chicago, and will expend an amount of about $250,000 in improving the same.

Cook's Park at Evansville, Ind., will soon be in readiness for its opening and its manager, Mr. Sleffert, is planning a great surprise. His theatre manager, Mr. Laurane, is now booking combinations.

Chester Park, at Cincinnati, Ohio, will open its gates to the public Saturday, May 14. Manager Martin is getting everything in readiness for the occasion and the management expects great returns this season from the same.

The Lagoon, near Cincinnati, will try stock this summer, which will present light comedies. This is a new departure in this vicinity. Those who will compose the company have not been made known, though all arrangements are practically completed.

Thompson & Dundy announce that everything is ready for the grand opening of Luna Park, Coney Island, which occurs Saturday, May 14. The opening has been well advertised for miles around and the cities are handsomely papered announcing the attractions for the coming season.

Dreamland, the new Coney Island pleasure resort is nearly completed. The tower is said to be magnificent. It is 375 feet high and can be seen for miles around. At night the tower will be illuminated with 25,000 electric lights, a curiosity to the thousands approaching Coney Island.

H. J. Martin, of Fort Dodge, Iowa, who has been equipping enclosed carnivals with canvas fence, amphitheatre, stage, etc., for the past three seasons, will take out a portable park outfit, with concessions and performance play- ing, under auspices of street railways. He opens June 6 at Fort Dodge, Iowa.

The Lake Manawa property at Omaha, Neb., has been leased by the Omaha Street Railway Co. to C. B. Tyler, T. J. O'Brien, W. P. Byrne and Emmet Tinsley, who have incorporated with a capital stock of $10,000. This amusement resort will be conducted by William P. Byrne as manager, and a number of extensive improvements are now in progress.

OBITUARY.

Clifton P. Weaver, manager of Willow Grove Park, Philadelphia, Pa., died in that city on May 3. He was well-known as a capable and thorough business man and had brought the business of that large park up to a profitable point. Interment was made in Philadelphia on May 6.

It is rather surprising to learn that the vast expanses of British Columbia have become practically denuded of game of all kinds, and that it has been necessary to start a preservation society in that once prolific game country.

What is still more surprising and ironical is that the sportsmen forming the association have had to come to England for game for restocking purposes. Mr. W. Cross, the Liverpool naturalist, has been commissioned on behalf of the Amalgamated Game Association of the Mainland of British Columbia, as the new association is called, to send a large stock of English and Hungarian partridges, the first batch of which will arrive at the end of this month. As the climate and the seasons in British Columbia are similar to those of this country, there is little doubt that the feathered aliens will soon become as indigenous to the country as were their exterminated predecessors. If they are given a chance they will accumulate twentyfold annually.

This is understood to be but the beginning of a big scheme for restocking the land with various kinds of game. At one time it was the easiest thing in the world to stalk off five or six good bucks with fine heads in one day in the neighborhood of Okanagan and Vaseux lakes, while puma, grizzly, cinnamon bear, moose, caribou and wapiti abounded in the country, but there is now scarcely anything left to shoot at.

Probably the next step taken by the new association will be to import the Silka deer, a Japanese variety, which now roams over most of the English forests. Two pairs of these deer were recently sent by Mr. Cross to Madrid to King Alfonso of Spain, where they will be placed in the royal forests.—Daily Mail.

In spite of the year's grace obtained by the postponement, THE ST. LOUIS WORLD'S FAIR WAS NOT READY ON TIME. It is not ready now and reliable parties who visited the opening, have gone home and told their friends that it will not be ready before the middle of June or the first of July.

These reports are undoubtedly exaggerated, but they can not be headed off now. The damage has been done. There will not be paying attendance until July 4, and all by reason of a stupid mistake.

The managers should have profited by the errors of the other great fairs. Not one was ever ready on time and all have suffered severely in their early days on this account. It would have been just as easy to be ready a month too soon as a month too late. All that was needed was the exercise of a little foresight and firmness.

The theatrical season, which is now rapidly drawing to a close, has been the most fearfully disastrous in a decade. Not since that of 1893-94 have we experienced anything like it. Let us hope that another one is (at least) ten years off.

EDDY FOY.

(See first page.)

Eddie Foy, the principal comedian of F. C. Whitney's Piff, Paff, Pout, the present show at the New York Casino, like many other prominent players, got his first stage experience with a minstrel company. He began as an end man with "Billy" Emerson's Minstrels in San Francisco. From San Francisco he jumped to Philadelphia, where for three years he was the end man and monologist with Carnross' Minstrels. His next experience was in stock work in San Francisco. He played the low comedy roles in the old San Francisco stock company, which, among others at that time, contained such players as Maude Adams, Miss Jeffreys-Lewis, E. J. Buckley, Frank Mordaunt and Geo. Osborne. Later he supported George S. Knight, the famous German comedian in Over the Garden Wall and Baron Rudolph. His next engagement was with Kate Castleton in Crazy Patch. For the next seven years he created the principal comedy roles in the David Henderson extravaganza and spectacles in Chicago. His great successes in All Babi, Sinbad, Aladdin, etc., are well remembered. In later times he has played engagements in company with Matthews & Bulger and Dunne & Ryley. Later, on Broadway, he has been seen in The Wild Rose, The Strollers and Mr. Bluebeard. It is only fair to say that Mr. Foy is now at his very best in Piff, Paff, Pout at the Casino. His very appearance is hailed with shouts of delight and loud hand-clappings. As Peter Poutie in this play, he is a stranded actor, who has posed for a picture and testimonial of a swamp root remedy.

CONTEMPLATED CHANGE IN CONTROL OF LONDON PLAYHOUSES.

As an outcome of recent difficulties affecting the London Opera Houses, it is not improbable that the licensing power, and with it the regulation of places of amusement, may be transferred to the Home Office. At the Lord Chamberlain's office, some new rules for the protection of audiences, are under consideration, and the Home Office is being consulted.

Considerable anxiety exists with regard to the new regulations, which will be put forward next October. It is said that Lord Clarendon has no desire to be antagonistic to managers, and that, on the contrary, it is his earnest desire to consider their interests and wishes in bringing about a complete and amicable arrangement while securing the effects aimed at.

It had been stated that standing-room would in the future be prohibited in theatres, but it is understood, from a well informed source, that no such rule is in contemplation. Sitting or standing in gangways will not be permitted, but managers had no idea of protesting against that rule.

New rules have long been a source of expense, and the majority of managers would gladly see Lord Chamberlain insist on the rights of his office and keep the officials of the London County Council within their own sphere of authority. Curious reading, a manager points out, may be found in the rules issued on March 1 to owners of premises licensed by the Council. Rule 34 says that "smoking must not be permitted in the auditorium, if the premises are used for dramatic entertainments." That rule, it is asserted, would stop smoking in music-halls, a claim which even theatre managers do not wish to see enforced.

Joseph Jefferson's son William once had a habit of being something of a spendthrift. On the occasion of a trip abroad his funds, which were supposed to be ample, had a habit of giving out with mysterious frequency, when it would become necessary to call upon his father for a renewed supply. These pitiful appeals for aid were endured patiently and responded to most promptly for a time, but at last parental authority began to exhibit itself, and instead of a remittance, came a "cable" which read: "What for?"

The reply was swiftly cabled across the water: "For Willie."—New York Commercial.

TENT SHOWS CIRCUS · WILD WEST MUSEUM · MENAGERIE

BUFFALO BILL'S WILD WEST

Opens at Stoke-on-Trent, England. Cyclist Hurt. Three Sleeping Cars Wrecked.

The Buffalo Bill Wild West Show opened at Stoke-on-Trent, England, April 25. The day was fair and business was capacity.

The performance moved smoothly along, and is reported as the best ever put on with the Buffalo Bill Show.

On Tuesday, April 26, Carter, the Cowboy Cyclist, who does a spectacular bicycle leap in the arena, had a bad fall.

Whether there was a mistake in the erection of the paraphernalia for the act, or whether the rider miscalculated has not been learned, but Carter was dashed to the ground sustaining a broken nose and injuries about the head which have resulted in concussion of the brain, besides internal injuries which have not been diagnosed.

Three sleeping cars have been wrecked in transportation since the opening.

LICENSE REDUCED.

The city council, of Clinton, Mo., at a recent meeting reduced the circus license to the following figures:

For shows which charge 10 cents admission, $10.00; for shows which charge 25 cents admission, $25.00; for shows which charge 50 cents admission, $50.00; for shows which charge more than 50 cents, $100.00.

The above to include one side show and one menagerie. Each additional side show, $10.00. The action was taken in view of the fact that the larger shows have been giving Clinton a wide berth.

GOLLMAR'S SHOW OPENS.

Gollmar's Circus opened the season of 1904 at Baraboo, Wis., on April 30. Great business is reported to have been had both afternoon and evening. The people of Baraboo turned out en masse to witness the performance, and pronounced the show greater and better than ever before.

The Olympian Festival is a stupendous spectacle portraying Roman achievements. Remarkable feats, both equestrian and aerial, were put on in rapid succession and the show furnished plenty of entertainment for an audience composed of all classes of people.

Ring No. 1 is kept lively by Hattie Adair, The Silbers, Miss Lizzie Rooney, Zella, Alex. Lowande, Eary Bros., Martino and Jos. La Rex. Ring No. 3 produces Louis Zello, The De Novas, Lizzie Pettit, Wm. De Van, A. G. Lowande, Otto Weaver and The Brandons. Stage No. 2, exhibits Ray Martino, Jos. La Rex, Pettit-Maxwell & Guffen Trio, Gollmar Bros., Performing Pachyderms, The European Dahn, The European Pettit Family, James Dougherty, Arthur Berre, Carrie Lowande, Potter & Harris and many fun provoking clowns are thrown in.

The band came in for its share of the applause and altogether the show was an excellent one.

CAMPBELL BROS. SHOW OPENS.

Saturday, April 30, was the day for the grand opening of the Campbell Bros' great consolidated shows. The event took place at Fairbury, Neb., where the show had been wintering and where great preparations had been made to fit the show for the season and make it grander and better and larger than any preceding year. Never in the history of the show had business been better than on the opening day this year and at the stands where the show has put up since the opening day.

The city was packed to witness the parade, which was better than ever before. Everything was in first-class shape, all the wardrobe was new and of the best.

The show opened at 2 p. m. and the whole performance went off like clock work. It was the best that Campbell Bros. have ever put out. The concert was one of the best ever given under a circus canvas and the side show was first-class, and had big business.

The management of the show deserve much credit and praise for its work in preparing the show for its tour this season. The show is strictly moral and first-class in every respect and so are all the attendants and those in charge.

ANIMAL CAR BURNED.

On Sunday afternoon, May 1, an animal car belonging to the Campbell Brothers Show, was burned at Pawnee City, Nebraska. The car contained three elephants, four camels, three sacred cows of India, one black bear and Campbell Brothers' three favorite ring horses, Venus, Topsy and Bismark, all of which were suffocated and burned.

The fire originated from a blazing torch with which one of the trainers entered the car. In some way the hay caught fire, and soon the entire car was in flames. All efforts at salvage were unavailing and the loss was complete. The loss is estimated at $12,000. Pawnee City was the first stand out of Fairbury, Neb., where the show opened April 30.

A shipment of animals to take the place of those that were lost, has been ordered from New York. The Campbell Brothers have received many messages of condolence from showmen throughout the country.

AMERICAN WATER CIRCUS OPENS

Prof. P. J. Newman's great American Water Circus opened at Ironton, Ohio, April 27, 28 to a packed house at both initial performances in spite of rain.

The show carries about forty people, including Prof. O'Hara's band of twelve pieces.

The roster is as follows: The Great Stewart Family, Roman Ladders and acrobats; Mrs. Addie, Barrel Kicking and Flying Rings; Mrs. Howard, Flying Rings and Flying Ladder; Eva Howard, Flying Rings and Trapeze; Robert Bolinger, Slack Wire and Bounding Rope; The Great Robertas, Trapeze; Cumatus, phenomenal balancer, Ben Wells, John Hunter and Lee Howard, clowns, and Prof. Newman's Dogs and Ponies.

FOR DEAR LIFE.

Every effort was made to expedite the landing of the White Star liner, "Teutonic," May 5, at her New York pier, several extra tugs being pressed into service.

Washington Smith, the well-known circus man, of Chicago, had been detained six weeks in London by severe illness.

Fearing that Smith would die, passage was secured for America, and Mr. Smith's physicians accompanied him on the voyage.

Several times his life was despaired of, but after a hurried landing, Mr. Smith was taken from the vessel in safety, and removed to Bridgeport, Conn., where he will have the best of medical treatment.

SEATS GIVE WAY.

A section of seats gave way at a performance of the Hargreaves Show at Rahway, N. J., May 5, a number of people were more or less severely bruised and shaken up.

A year ago, when the show was at Rahway, a chariot dashed against a pole in a race and burning lamps were thrown to the ground, causing a panic in which several persons were bruised. In Burlington, N. J., a heavy tent pole fell and started a panic, in which two persons were badly injured.

CIRCUS GOSSIP.

E. J. Gossley is with the Great Van Amburg Shows.

Senator McDonald goes with the Campbell Bros. this season.

Mr. Geo. Tardy of Waterloo, Iowa, has joined Texas Bill's Wild West.

Gentry Bros. No. 1 Show did good business in East St. Louis April 30.

L. C. Zeleno opened with the Van Amburg Shows at Waverly, Mo., April 30.

Jos McCaddon was a visitor at the opening performance of the Great Wallace Shows.

It is reported that one man is dying from wounds received in the Boston opposition fight.

Dr. Ives, a well-known physician of Bridgeport, Conn., has joined the Barnum & Bailey Show.

Toia (Topsy) Mitchell and Flora Stephens joined the Van Amburg Shows at Kansas City, Mo.

The Buckskin Bill Wild West re-opened in Chicago, May 4, to play lots in the immediate vicinity.

The M. L. Clark Show, which opened at Alexandria, La., March 7, reports eight weeks of good business.

Gentry Bros. Shows were unable to exhibit in Evansville, Ind., April 27, on account of rain and wet grounds.

Jersey City sent the biggest crowds to the Barnum and Bailey Show that ever attended a circus in that city.

Mr. E. B. Streby, the veteran show man, General Agent for Sells-Downs Show is quite a favorite with the press.

Chas. Ellis is contracting agent for the Pan American Circus and European Menagerie, which opens May 14 at Kansas City, Mo.

Percy Karper and Milton Gans, of Chambersburg, Pa., have joined Golmer Bros., and Sig Sautelle's Circus Bands, respectively.

The Barnum & Bailey Show was forced to omit the parade feature at Jersey City, N. J., May 2, on account of extremely bad weather.

The Sells-Downs Shows report good business. They have only had to lay out one day since their opening, that being due to bad weather.

Ringling Bros. Circus broke all records at St. Louis for attendance. After Tuesday night they could not accommodate those who wanted admission.

Floto's Shows opened up at Eleventh and Market streets, San Francisco, Cal., for an 8 day's stand, on May 1. Good business was enjoyed by the show.

Pawnee Bill started to bill Philadelphia on May 9. The date in that city is May 23, for one week, and the same lot as used by the Forepaugh-Sells Circus will be used.

John Robinson, one of the oldest employees with the Wallace Circus, had his leg broken while unloading his team of horses at Muncie, Ind., May 2. He was taken to the hospital.

A man calling himself Paul T. Ault, and representing himself as an agent of the great Wallace Show, appeared in Ironton, Ohio, last week. No such person is identified with the great Wallace Show.

Andrew Mackay, manager of Mackay's European Circus which is to open in Handan's Park, St. Louis, for the summer, is now in the East completing the final arrangements. The opening will take place about May 30.

Will S. Rydon, manager of McDonald Brothers Shows was a caller at the office of "The Billboard," May 8. Mr. Rydon reports the show enjoying good business in West Virginia, although they have had a great deal of rain.

At Dayton, Ohio, May 4, Edward B. Henderson brought suit against the Ringling Brothers' Circus in the amount of $10,000 for alleged injuries received in a runaway accident June 19, 1903, while in the employ of the show. Henderson was a member of the band.

Mrs. Arthur Nelson, wife of Arthur Nelson, manager of the Nelson troupe of acrobats, who are with the Walter L. Main Show this season, presented her husband, May 2, with a baby girl. The Nelsons will play the Orpheum, Kohl and Castle Circuits at the end of the circus season.

The Barnum and Bailey Show has cancelled Cambridge, Zanesville, and Marietta, Ohio, and Parkersburg, W. Va. The route of the show having been changed. All these towns have had thirty days' billing. The Barnum and Bailey Show will make them later in the season.

The Great Van Amburg Shows opened at Waverly, Mo., on April 30. The show is under the direction of Frank Gardner. The roster of performers is as follows: Hines & Kimball Trio, The Cliffords, "Tamborine" McCarthy, The Edwards, Ben Beno, Miller Bros., Geo. Cline, The Powells, Don Quett, Burt Mayo, Sr., Bell Bros., L. C. Zeleno and The Valentines. The band is under the direction of A. R. Wheeler and Wm. Palmer has the side show.

Notes from the James Shelby Show: We left winter quarters February 3 and are now entering our 13th week. We have had a cold and disagreeable April, but have not had a losing week up to this date. Everybody with the show is looking for a prosperous season. This is a small, but well-equipped wagon show, consisting of 23 horses and 10 wagons. We get our new tent a 60x90 Marquee etc., from J. C. Goss, about May 20 and will make a long season and route the show farther south for the winter.

The roster of Colorado Grant's Wild West Show is as follows: Floyd Trover, general agent and railroad contractor; Joseph Dove, charge of advance car; Colorado Grant, proprietor and manager; Nat C. Robinson and Jack Moore, announcers; Geo. Pilot and Doc Ranchard ticket sellers; Wm. Dugan, privileges and Rob Bonalzo equestrian director. Geo. Ries has charge of the big top; Frank Pierce, side show; Shorty Laurel, boss hostler; Jim Hattel, boss properties; Sig Podget, wardrobe and F. Saunders, train master.

The Hargreaves Shows met with some hard luck during their tour of Jersey. Wet weather made the hauls from the lots, bad ones, but business was enormous at a number of the stands. In Camden, N. J. the tents were packed to the ring banks and other towns also brought out big crowds. One horse died in Glasboro, a very valuable animal, but two colts were born the same day, so the show was one animal to the good. In Burlington, on May 2, one of the center poles fell and two people were injured, but not seriously.

Notes from the Rippl Show: We open in Forest, Ind., May 7. The complete roster of the show is as follows: C. A. Rippl, Prop. and Mgr.; Alvin Redcliff, Gen. Mgr.; Prof. Snavey, leader of band; Asa Aber, cornet; Cal Sidlatz, baritone; Zero, cornet; Arthur Hawkins, tuba; Henry Slautz, alto; Ben Kelso, clarinet; Jack Rippl, snare drum; Charlie Rippl, bass drum. The band, under Prof. Snavey, formerly with the Robinson Carnival Co., and the Adams Circus is certainly a wonder. Link Bough is boss canvasser with four assistants, and Jim Parter is advance man with two assistants. We show through Indiana and Ohio this season, over our old route that we have been making for five years.

Notes from Buckskin Bill's Wild West Shows: On account of rain and cold uncrucial weather, the show jumped into Chicago from Wichita, Kan., thus having to cancel some 28 or 30 stands. We showed in South Chicago two days to the capacity of our canvas, and one day at the 69th and Halstead grounds, to fair business. The show will exhibit in and around Chicago for two weeks. Mr. Walter McGuiley has the concessions and he is a prince of good fellows. P. B. Smith, Geo. Applehance and Paddy Walsh are prominent around the show. Mr. Leo Fernst has the electric horoscope in the kid show, while Leo himself tends to the wants of the thirsty ones who have "Just come in." The show carries 22 cars, 2 full bands and 80 Indians. Altogether it is a very clean, nice little wild west show. Old Buckskin Bill is still with us although we thought that we had lost him several times.

Andrew Mackay was in Philadelphia a week of May 2, and while there had Jim Aull, of that city, arrested for larceny as before. Some time ago, Mr. Mackay started a lot of circus dates and paraphernalia with Mr. Aull. All charges were paid, and when Mr. Mackay remanded his goods he was told they had been broken up. He found out that they had been sold to another show, so he had a warrant issued for Aull. The magistrate decided that Aull would have to pay for the full value of the property to Mr. Mackay, amounting to $400.00, or undergo imprisonment.

Andrew Mackay, manager of the European circus, which will run all summer at Handan's Park, St. Louis, has just engaged, by wire, the 5th Regiment, Canadian Artillery Band, of Victoria, B. C., to give concerts before and after the circus performance. This is one of the notable bands of the English military service, and it will be the first band that England has ever allowed to visit America. They appear in full military uniform. All of the bands that have hitherto appeared in the United States, purporting to come from England, have been made up for the occasion, but this is a full military band on leave of absence.

Notes from Lowry Bros. New Olympic shows. We opened the season at Shenandoah, Pa., April 18. The large tent was packed for the entire engagement of four performances and gave the best of satisfaction. The principal features this season are: Prof. John Stofanski, balloon ascensionist; M'Le Queent, daring slide for life; Millie and John La Rue, aerial wonders; the Seymours, premier concert team; Prof. Mettie, of Phila., and his Italian concert band of 12 pieces. Our canvas is 90 with two forty additions. When the show reached Weatherly, Pa., its next stand, the 20, a blizzard was raging and snow continued to fall steadily. It was impossible to give any outdoor performances, and the manager secured the newly erected Charles M. Schwab Auditorium for the engagement. The attendance was large and a general verdict of approval was heard on all sides from the audience.

MacFarland & Holders United Shows are to open at Woodbury, N. J., on May 14. The shows have been wintering there and a large force of men have been busily engaged in getting the show in first-class shape. All of the wagons are new and the whole outfit will be a handsome

NEW YORK.

Charles Frohman will produce for a single performance at the Actors' Fund Benefit at the Knickerbocker Theatre, next Friday afternoon, Pierre Bertone's three-act drama "Yvette," which will then have its first presentation in this country. M. Bertone is the author of "Zaza," one of the most successful dramas that have come to us from the French in many years, and it is said his Yvette possesses equal, if not greater, dramatic value, and will be found fully as striking and interesting a production as was its predecessor. The play deals with certain phases of Parisian social life which are graphically and attractively presented. Mr. Frohman will put the drama upon the stage as carefully, both as to mounting and cast, as if it were being presented for a long run. Special scenery has been painted by Ernest Gros, and in the cast will be assembled a large number of important players selected from Mr. Frohman's extensive acting forces, and several of whom will play what are known as "small bits." This cast includes Dorothy Dorr, Margaret Illington, Hattie Williams, Jeffreys, Lewis, Kate Pattison-Selten, Maude Granger, Rosalind Coghlan, Claire Kulp, Tyrone Power, Bruce McRae, Ralph Delmore, Harry Davenport, Arthur Elliott, Morton Seltin, Robert McWade, Jr., John Barrymore, Paul Duke, Ernest Lambert and others. "Yvette" has been adapted for the English stage by Cosmo Gordon Lennox, who made the successful adaptation of The Marriage of Kitty.

The triumph made by Virginia Harned as Camille at the Harlem Opera House has induced her to move the production to the Garlick Theatre, where she will appear as the heroine of Alexander Dumas' famous play, surrounded by a specially selected company, for one week only, beginning to-morrow evening. William Collier continues to draw big houses to the Criterion. The Dictator is in its second month.

Piff, Paff, Pouf, will run all summer at the Casino. De Wolf Hopper's revival of Wang is meeting with even greater success than did the original.

James K. Hackett, in The Secret of Polichinelle, at the Princess, will close, May 14.

The bill at Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre is made up of Sparrow, the Mad Juggler, Nestor Lennon and company, Belle Hathway's Dogs, White and Simmons, Elsworth and Burt, Emerson and Omega, Marie Brackman, Spenser Kelly, James McElhern, Herbert, Collins and Vack, Valveno Brothers, Cladius and Corbin, and the Browning Sisters.

Keith's Union Square Theatre offers Henry Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew, Frank Bush, The Village Choir, Kreisel's Monkey's, The Wood Brothers, Willis and Hassan, Sisters De Van, Lillian Le Roy, Koppe, and the pictures. At Hurtig & Seamon's—May Edouin and Fred Edwards, Max Waldron, Dean Edsal and company, the Rappo Sisters, Joe Flynn, A. F. Rostow, Searle and Viollet, and Davis and Walker.

The attraction at Huber's Museum are The Oriental Gypsy Band, Wissner, Glenfield, Ed. Gavem, Mme. Morellos, and others.

CINCINNATI.

The season in Cincinnati is rapidly drawing to a close. The Grand will close in two weeks, unless cold weather will justify other bills being put on. The park season is almost here and will claim the patronage of those who attended the theatres. Cincinnati's numerous parks are all constructed with the idea of a place of amusement and recreation and will receive their part of the public patronage.

Grand (Rainforth & Havlin, Mgrs.)—Marie Cahill is furnishing excellent attraction at the Grand this week, in Nancy Brown. Both the star and her vehicle are too well known to require comment. Suffice it to say, however, that the attraction is greatly interesting the patrons of this house. The company in support of Miss Cahill is well fitted for the work and add much to the play. Next week Viola Allen comes to this house.

Walnut Theatre (M. C. Anderson, Mgr.)—After a year's absence, Otis B. Thayer has returned in Sweet Clover, with a cast that is as good if not better than that carried last season. Miss Bessie Bondhill gives a charming portrayal of Lois Holcomb, and is easily a great favorite with the audiences.

Mr. Thayer's Jerome Holcomb is a character that will be of lasting duration in the minds and hearts of all play goers. The works of Miss Marie Del Vecchio, Miss Bonnie Stringfellow, Mr. Franklyn Hall and Mr. Elmer Ellsworth receives the attention and applause it deserves. The stage settings have been carefully selected. The season at the Walnut closes with this attraction, and the patrons of the house have shown their appreciation of the high grade of production offered by filling the theatre almost nightly.

Columbia (M. C. Anderson, Mgr.)—Mr. Walters Tyson & Company, headliners, have quite an amusing sketch, and prove their ability as fun makers. The four Rianos, putting on their laughing comedy acrobatic turn, are most pleasing. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hughes scored exceedingly well in A Matrimonial Substitute. Eckhoff and Gordon, in their funny musical sketch are required to give a number of recalls to satisfy the delighted audience. Howards troupe of performing ponies and dogs, is one of the best animal acts seen at this house this season and was liberally applauded. Miss Latins, in her physical culture exercise, is pleasing as was Carrie Scott, Lloyd and Mateo make good with their singing specialty, and the biroscope concludes the program.

Robinson's (E. D. Stair, Mgr.)—The James Boys in Missouri furnish plenty of attraction at this house. It is a company of exceptional ability, and the four acts are truly characteristic of the wild border life of former years. The train robbery instance is realistic indeed, and received the applause it deserved.

Lycum (Heuck & Fennessy, Mgrs.)—The Selma Herman Stock Company is putting on Woman Against Woman this week at this house and this will probably be the last bill in which Miss Herman's company will appear. As Bessie Barton Miss Herman is perfectly at home and she is ably assisted by Mr. John Ince, who makes his first appearance with this company this week. The scenery and mechanical and electrical effects are appropriate and the show is a pleasing one.

Peoples—A high-class burlesque is being put on by Fulton's Jolly Grass Widows this week. One Night and Gone, in two acts, is the burlesque and a good olio helps to make a good attraction.

NOTES.

Only a Saturday matinee will be given at the Grand this week.

It is reported in Cincinnati that Manager Anderson, of the Walnut and Columbia, has purchased the stage rights to King Dodo, which created a very favorable impression here the first part of the season.

John Weber and his band comes to Music Hall, Sunday, May 15. Master Harry Kahn, the Cincinnati boy cornet virtuoso, will assist the famous musician in this concert.

Mr. John Ince made his first appearance with The Selma Herman Stock Company, Sunday, May 8.

Concerts begin at the Zoo on May 29. Chester Park opens May 15 with free vaudeville, both afternoon and evening.

Gentry Brothers Dog and Pony Show opened a week's engagement May 8, to good business. The show will undoubtedly have a good week in Cincinnati.

TORONTO, ONT.—Shea's (J. Shea, Mgr.) Dainty Edna Wallace Hooper supported by H. Hassard Shost Co., proved a great drawing card.

Star (F. W. Stair, Mgr.) Fred Irwin's Big Show, 2-7, is a good one and the large clientele of this popular resort was well pleased. Coming: Rentz Santley Burlesquers.

Majestic (A. J. Small, Mgr.) From Rags to Riches, 2-7. Next: Human Hearts.

Grand (Small & Stair, Mgrs.) Are You A Fason? 2-7. Coming: David Harum.

SAGINAW, MICH.—Academy of Music (John H. Davidson, Mgr.) Vogel's Minstrel's, 28, played to full house; gave satisfaction. German Imperial Band, 4. Lyman H. Howell's moving perial Band, 4. Lyman H. Howell's moving pictures, 5.

Jefferson Theatre (T. D. Bamford & Sam Marks, Mgrs.) The Parish Priest played to big business, 25-30; good attraction. The Man from Mexico, 1-7. M. E. KENNEDY.

NORFOLK, VA.—Academy of Music (Corbin Shield, Mgr.) Bennett-Moulton Stock Company over another week, 9-14.

Granby (Otto Wells, Mgr.) Ragged Hero Company, 2-7. Played to big houses. Week of the 9th., Mr. Walter Edwards as Sherlock Holmes, in The Sign of the Four.

DIXON, ILL.—Dixon Opera House (Mrs. E. J. Freeman, Mgr.) Sweet Clover Company 28. Good business and the company is excellent. Wood & Ward in Two Merry Tramps, May 4; Wm. Owen, in Lady of Lyons, 14; Chicago Tramps, 19; Garden & Bennett in A Royal Slave.

MONTGOMERY, ALA.—The theatrical season has come to a close. It has been the most successful in the history of Montgomery. The Pickett Springs Casino, under the management of the Montgomery Traction Co., will open the summer season in about three weeks, with a first-class repertoire company. H. C. O.

BENTON HARBOR, MICH.—Bell Opera House (Fred Fulton, Mgr.) Down Mobile, 30, to fine house, show good; good satisfaction. Old Arkansas, 3, poor house; fair show; scenery fine. Coming: Little Homestead; Hospital benefit (local), 11; Howe's Moving Pictures, 14.

GLOUCESTER, MASS.—Union Hill Theatre (Lothorp & Tohnau, Mgrs.) An American Hobo, 27, played to small house. Busy Izzy, 28, large business, excellent company. Coming: Exposition Minstrels, May 7. Ward and Vokes in A Pair of Pinks, 9. EDWARD B. HADLEY.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo.—Baldwin Theatre (G. F. Olenhoff, Mgr.) Brickeridge Stock Co., 9-15; Ireland Amusement Co., 16-18. Note—The Hopewell Society will give a performance at the Baldwin Theatre, May 20.

PARSONS, KAN.—Edward's Opera House.—Eric of Sweden, Apr. 26, poor house. Edward's Theatre.—The International Bioscope Co., 28, 30; fair house; fair attraction. Coming: Maloney's Wedding, Fay 2. B. W. Sipple.

MARTINSBURG, W. VA.—Central Opera House (A. F. Lambert, Mgr.) The Van Dyke & Eaton Co., 2-7; good business. R. A. CLOHAN.

GREENSBURG, PA.—St. Clair Theatre (Frank Good, Mgr.) Alberta Galatin in Ibsen's Ghost's 27, pleased a large audience. Hadley Moving Pictures, 30, took well. C. M. WIBLE.

LINTON, IND.—The Harrington and Hutchins Stock Company closed a very successful week in this city 7. Performances very good. Coming, Kibby Stock Company. J. E. TURNER.

The first annual meeting of the Actors Alliance at Toledo, Ohio, resulted in the election of the following: President, Rev. A. Leffingwell; first vice-president, Robinson Locke; second vice-president, Joseph O'Meara; secretary, R. M. Starr; treasurer, Rev. Lewis Post Franklin; local council, Rev. J. T. O'Connell, Rev. John Ramsey Hunter, Rev. L. P. McDonald, Charles H. Thompson, Mrs. W. W. Ainsworth, Harry Glazier, Mrs. Percy C. Jones, George W. Stevens, Harry J. Howard and George Ketcham.

BILLPPOSTERS DISTRIBUTORS & COMMERCIAL ADVERTISERS

KENTUCKY CONVENTION.

The Annual Meeting of The Kentucky State Billposters and Distributors' Convention, Held at Seelback's Hotel, Louisville, Ky., May 2.

In the absence of Pres. J. G. Burch and Vice-Pres. J. C. Utterback, Mr. Ramsey Washington, of Newport, was elected chairman. The following members were present: J. L. Lambert, Jr., Secy.; J. H. Whallen, Treas. Committee: T. A. Pedley and Ramsey Washington, also Jas. P. Whallen, L. H. Ramsey, W. M. O'Neal, and R. W. Kennedy. Fifty-four towns were represented, and nine absent.

The following new members were admitted to membership: Georgetown, The Ramsey Syndicate, Maysville, H. L. Hamilton, Augusta, The Augusta Advertising Co., Ellsworth Yates, Mgr.

The election of officers for the year resulted as follows:

Ramsey Washington, President; W. M. O'Neal, Vice President; J. L. Lambert, Jr., Secretary; Col. J. H. Whallen, Treasurer. Executive Committee, T. A. Pedley, L. H. Ramsey, and O. P. Birchfield.

The chair appointed a committee consisting of T. A. Pedley and Secy. J. L. Lambert, Jr. to draft a resolution in regard to the circus rate as follows:

Be it resolved that it is the unanimous sense of this association that the action of the Board of Directors of the National Assn. at the Chicago meeting in fixing rates on circus billposting for the smaller towns was manifestly unfair, and be it further resolved that the Associated Billposters and Distributors at their next annual meeting be earnestly requested to correct such proceedings.

The resolution was unanimously adopted. The following delegates were elected to represent the Kentucky State Assn. at the annual meeting of the National Assn.: T. A. Pedley and Ramsey Washington.

The Treasurer's report showed a balance in the treasury of $111.15. The Secretary's report showed 63 members in the Association in good standing. Adjournment.

OFFICIAL INFORMATION.

The following notice will be sent out from Secretary Chas. Bernard's office:

Notice is hereby given that on Tuesday, July 12, 1904, the annual meeting of the Associated Billposters and Distributors of the United States and Canada will convene in the main Assembly Hall of the Administration Building on the grounds of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis, Mo. This will be the thirteenth annual convention of the Association and will continue through four days, July 12 to 15 inclusive. Friday, July 15 has been set apart by President Francis of the Exposition Company as a Special Day devoted to the interests of the Billposters and Distributors of the World, designated by him to be known and celebrated as "Poster Day." An invitation is extended to every member of this Association and its Sub-ordinate Associations to be present at the opening session at 10 o'clock a. m. on Tuesday July 12 and remain through every session during the continuance of the Convention. Every Billposter, Distributor, Bulletin Painter, Poster Printer, Solicitor, Publisher, Advertiser or person in any way connected with or interested in Outdoor Advertising, in the World, is hereby given special invitation to be present and participate in the celebration of "Poster Day."

The "Inside Inn," the only hotel within the grounds of the World's Fair, erected under a contract with the Exposition management, which recommends its service and stipulates its rates, has been selected as the Association headquarters during the Convention. The rates at the "Inside Inn," European Plan, are $1.50 to $5.50 per day, American Plan $3.00 to $7.00 per day. A booklet descriptive of the "Inside Inn" is sent with this circular; it gives full information as regards rates and how to reserve accommodations. Those who reserve rooms at an early date will have choice of rates, not that the rates will be advanced, but there is only a limited number of the lower priced rates and they are being rapidly taken by organizations similar to ours who reserve the bulk of their accommodations in the lower priced rooms; the lower rates will give perfectly pleasant and comfortable accommodations; difference in price is controlled entirely by the size and location of the rooms. The smallest rooms are 10x12 and have ample comfortable accommodations for two people.

The advantage to be derived from securing accommodations inside of the Exposition grounds is that no time need be lost in going to and from the city to attend the meetings, no extra expense for transportation and admissions, and that between sessions of the Convention all time can be devoted to viewing the Exhibition exhibits.

Those preferring hotel accommodations outside the Exposition grounds, or in the city, can find ample accommodations at the numerous hotels and boarding houses advertised by the World's Fair Information Bureau, in a booklet which gives capacity, prices, etc.

A Bureau of Information in charge of F. E. Fitch of Albany, N. Y., will be established at the "Inside Inn" on Monday July 11, and maintained throughout the Convention. All members will be required to register and be supplied with credentials for admission to the Convention Assembly Hall.

A special public session will be announced by the president of the association, on the opening day, to which all advertisers, their representatives, poster printers, publishers, representatives of other advertising associations, trade organizations and every person interested in advertising will be invited, at which time the development of advertising and the co-operation of all advertising interests will be a topic for discussion on which those present will be invited to express their views.

Friday, July 15 will be devoted exclusively to celebrating "Poster Day." A special feature of the day will be an exhibit of mounted posters and contest for prizes by advertisers, which is open to the advertisers of the world; three handsome prizes will be presented by the Association for the best and most effective posters exhibited; the posters to be entered by advertisers who use billboards as a medium of advertising, posters entered not to be less than eight-sheets in size and carefully mounted so that they can be exhibited as a complete poster. Judges to be selected during the Convention from those present best adapted to serve in that capacity.

No member of the Association can afford to miss the 1904 Convention; matters of vital importance to the billposting and outdoor advertising interests at large are to be discussed and acted upon. The location for holding the Convention is central; the rates offered by the railroads to St. Louis on account of the Exposition will enable members and all interested in the Convention to attend at an expense of about one-half the usual rates of fare. Each and every member of the National Association or of a Sub-ordinate is urgently requested to attend in person.

BARNEY LINK, CHAS. BERNARD, President, Secretary.

STATE AND DISTRICT ASSOCIATION CONVENTIONS.

A number of State and district billposters associations hold their annual meetings during the remainder of May and the early part of June.

Monday, May 16, The Southeastern States Association will convene at the Lookout Mountain Inn, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Tuesday, May 17, The Indiana Association will meet at the office of the Indianapolis Billposting Co., Indianapolis, Ind.

The Rocky Mountain Association will meet at Trinidad, Col., Saturday, May 21. A proposition to have all members of the Rocky Mountain Association meet at some central point and travel in a body to the St. Louis National Convention in July, will be voted on.

The Texas Association is called for Monday, May 23, at Galveston, Tex.

The Iowa State Billposters and Distributors Association will be held in Marshalltown, Iowa, Thursday, May 26.

May 26 and 27 are the dates for the Pennsylvania Association Convention which is to be held at Allentown.

The Michigan Association meets at Saginaw, Mich., June 7 and 8.

The office of the Jersey City Billposting Co., in Jersey City, N. J., has been selected as the meeting place for the New Jersey Association Convention, June 6.

ADVANTAGES OF ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIP.

Although the billposting business has made most remarkable advancement in the past few years, and at present a posting campaign can be mapped out by a National Advertiser to cover a large portion of the better towns and cities on a guaranteed service contract, yet it remains a fact that there is a list of splendid cities not equipped with modern plants, and many with no plants of any kind, which it is necessary to enumerate to impress the truth of the situation on the advertising public. Records recently prepared in the National Headquarters of the Associated Billposters and Distributors shows that the following towns having a population of over 5,000 are not represented by membership in that organization and are therefore open to interested men who want to invest in billposting and protect their investment with an Association franchise.

The list comprises the following, viz.: Tuscaloosa, Ala.; Grotton, Westhaven and Wested, Conn.; Key West, Fla.; Columbus, Ga.; Dixon, Macomb, Spring Valley and Mt. Vernon, Ill.; Maysville, Bellevue and Dayton, Ky.; Algiers, Baton Rouge, Alexandria, La.; Rockland and Westbrook and Maine; Frostburg, Md.; Brighton, Dorchester, Brookline, Jamaica Plain, South Framingham, Weymouth, Arlington, Athol, Braintree, Bridgewater, Concord, Dedham, Franklin, Milton, Orange, Savarus, Stoneham, Stoughton, Wakefield, Wellesley, Whitman and Winchester, Mass.; Laurium and Ironwood, Mich.; Austin, Minn.; Meridian, Greenville and Columbus, Miss.; Marshall and Trenton, Mo.; Franklin Falls, Keene, and Claremont, N. H.; Jamestown, Hornellsville, Lansingburg, New Brighton, Ogdensburg, St. George, Stapleton and Westchester, N. Y.; Asheville, Greensboro and Elizabeth City, N. C.; Niles, Ohio; Chester, Manayunk, Dunmore, Lebanon, Mount Carmel, Steelton, Bennett, Bristol, Carlisle, Chestnut Hill, Coatesville, Conshohocken, Edwardsville, Huntingdon, Freeland, Hanover, Millville, Middletown, Milton, Old Forge, Sayre, Sharpsburg, Tyrone, Tuscarora, Uniontown, Warren, Waynesboro and Winder, Pa.; Sumter and Rock Hill, S. C.; Cleburne and Brownsville, Texas; St. Albans and Montpelier, Vt.; Winchester, Va.; Fairmont, Grafton, Martinsburg and Moundsville, W. Va.; Beaver Dam and Oconto, Wisconsin.

The story has got abroad that there are to be association inspectors in every city to look after the displays and to check them up and report both to the solicitor and the advertisers. Boys, look to the good reputations you have earned.

DAUBS.

J. D. Parsons, of Dixon, Ill., is interested in the possibilities of a profitable investment in billboards in that city.

Fred. B. Corbett, of Emporia, Kan., built 150 feet of boards to accommodate the Wallace Show which exhibits there May 17.

The Billposting Sign Co., of Atlantic City, N. J., has a new outfit and gives all companies a good showing on its boards.

C. H. Noell, of Van Wert, Ohio, has sold his billposting plant to F. H. Stoup, of Delphos, and Frank Horman will take charge of the same.

F. H. Hanp is sending to advertisers, a neatly printed card, conveying the information that he now controls the plants at Delphos and Van Wert, Ohio.

From the present outlook the Saratoga Billposting Co. at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., will have an enormous business this summer, easily double that of last year.

New and up-to-date billposting plants have

The SECOND ANNUAL REVIEW of the work and progress of the NATIONAL ALLIANCE of BILLPPOSTERS and BILLERS of AMERICA will be a very handsome publication. 20,000 copies will be printed, which gives an estimated circulation of 100,000 readers. For advertising rates, Address: Chas. Joseph, P. O. Box 616, Pittsburg, Pa.

been established recently at Marlette, Mich. J. D. McGill, Riverdale, Mich., F. E. Loop, and Leshe, Mich., Oliver Eckert.

The Bradford, Pa., Theatre Billposting Co., have bought out James Andrews Billposting plant. No money is being spared to get the best locations possible.

Mr. Herman Delker, billposter of Junction City, Kan., posted the following during April: 15-8 sheets for the Kansas City Jockey Club and 6-8 sheets for the Mahin Adv. Co., of Chicago, Ill.

Frank Orr, owner of the billposting plant in Chambersburg, Pa., reports plenty of work and increasing with the opening of spring. A one hundred and fifty foot fence has just been erected on the public square.

H. M. Ernst, Secretary of the Tri-State Association, reports that from inside information he is satisfied that the singers of the circus agreement are determined to "tote fair" with the billposters of the association.

The Saratoga Bill Posting Company, of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., writes: We wish to rectify a mistake in some advertising matter recently sent out from this office. Our bulletin rate is $1.50 per running foot per year, painted, not unpainted, as was given.

The Knox Billposting and Distributing Co., of Knox, Ind., writes that business is opening up big in that city. The company has on its boards Gold Dust, from the Malin Adv. Co., Chicago, and opera house posting from the Chicago opera houses. They are erecting 200 feet of boards, making a total of 1,200 feet.

Ownership and management of the billposting plant at Huntsville, Ala., is in dispute. Thos. F. Littlejohn, of Decatur, Ala., claims ownership and control, through purchase from W. W. Epperson, while H. E. Stoops, of Chattanooga, claims partnership interest and association membership which Epperson had no right to offer for sale.

W. O. Torkington, owner of the Kokomo, Ind., billposting plant, has installed a competent manager in charge of his plant, and is again in advance of Gentry Bros'. Show No. 3, as general agent. Tarkington says this season's salary will be used to increase the capacity of the Kokomo plant.

The Iowa Billposters' Association have purchased the billposting plant at Dubuque, Iowa, formerly managed by Mr. James Coffee. Mr. William Haas, theatrical agent, of Savannah, Ill., has undertaken the management of the plant. The old boards will be replaced by several thousand feet of galvanized steel boards.

W. A. Hollaugh, of Annapolis, Md., writes as follows: I have added to my boards in the past two weeks twenty 40-sheet stands and I can now post 2,000 sheets of paper. I intend to still further enlarge my plant as I have plenty of paper. Have 400 sheets of Barnum & Bailey paper posted, advertising their Baltimore dates.

Mr. George A. Olmstead has succeeded John W. Gates as manager of the Illinois Posting service at Sterling, Rock Falls and Morrison, Ill., with headquarters at Sterling. Mr. Gates will take charge of the Grand Opera House at Fort Madison, Iowa, which is in the Chamberlain-Kindt Circuit. Dixon, Ill., will shortly be added to Mr. Almstead's territory.

Steketee & Leonard, writes as follows, from Muskegon, Mich.: "Business in Muskegon is booming with us. The work was very late in arriving this spring, but it is here with a will. We are having very good success with our bulletin boards as well as the posting. We have orders now for nearly 200 feet in length, of bulletins. These are all galvanized sheet steel and the signs very in length from 9 to 18 feet.

NATIONAL ALLIANCE NOTES.

Bros. Ed. L. Ray and Louis Gazzola, of Local No. 5, St. Louis, Mo., died last week.

President Joseph has been invited to come to England and organize the journeymen billposters of Great Britain. The story of the success of the Alliance has gone abroad.

A keg of paste fell on Ed. Baker, of Advance Car No. 1, of Wallace Show at Emporia, breaking his left leg just below the knee.

The following members of the Alliance are in advance of the Gentry Dog and Pony Show: Albert Ball, Local No. 7; E. A. Roby, Local No. 9 and F. Sterns, Local No. 3. W. O. Tarkington is manager of the crew.

Fred. Jones, a billposter with the Opposition Brigade of the Wallace Show, was compelled to leave them at Leavenworth, Kan., owing to an attack of rheumatism. He is now at home home at Lincoln, Neb., and with the aid of a pair of crutches is able to be about again. He hopes to be able to join his car soon.

Notes from Local No. 30, Jersey City, N. J.: We have added eight new members to our list. They are with Hargreaves Circus. The local expects, by next meeting night, May 8, to have ten more. Mr. Wolff is certainly a hustler and believes in keeping things on a move. Jersey City will soon be the banner local.

Notes from No. 9, Louisville, Ky.: The Gentry Bros. have signed the circus agreement and Bro. Roby, of Local No. 9, Bro. Stern, of Local No. 3 and Bro. Balls, of Local No. 7, are in Louisville billing the town for the Gentry great dog and pony show. Bros. Godshaw and Murane left for St. Louis to work for Col. Hopkins for the Summer. No. 9 is prospering.

The initiation fee demanded by the New York local, continues to be the cause of much criticism and discussion. Correspondents must understand, however, that we can not print unsigned articles on this subject. If you can not back up your opinion with your name, we can not use your communications. In the interest of peace and harmony, we would suggest that the least said is soonest mended, the better for all concerned.

Notes from Local No. 13, Omaha, Neb.: Campbell Bros. advance Car No. 1, in charge of Mr. E. A. Clark, visited Omaha, Neb., April 22 with the following members of Local No. 6: Dick Beemer, boss billposter; Ed. Profit, lithographer; Monk Brennell and Pinnale, of No. 14; E. H. Garrett, of the same car was initiated into Local No. 13. The shop did all the work on April 27. Mr. Ed. Sands, and seven of his men, late of the Buckskin Bill Show, arrived to join the No. 2 car of Campbell Bros. Mr. Sand takes charge of the car. Mr. Harry Seaman also connected with the show is here.

The roster of Car No. 2 of the Barnum & Bailey Show is as follows: H. A. Mann and Al. Mel, associate managers; Wm. Shea, boss billposter; H. C. Jewell, boss lithographer. The billposters are: R. Lavefer, H. A. White, Louis Kavanagh, M. Coughlin, W. R. Oliver, Geo. Morgan, Ed. Tice, John Leister, E. Mahaffey, John Lyons, W. A. Thibo, Wm. Marsh, Cliff Guy, Oliver Burr, Jas. Lyons, Peter Bahr and D. Dildine. Jos. Smith and Bert Watkins, lithographers; E. W. Hoons, chef; E. A. Tolles, assistant chef and Body Miller, porter.

Notes from Local No. 14, Kansas City, Mo.: No. 1 Car of Gentry Bros', Famous Shows, arrived here Sunday with the following staff: H. P. Wiel, Gen. Agt.; Ed. M. Jackson, Car Mgr. and local contractor; Ralph Simpson, charge of paper; John R. Feltner, E. Simpson, Harry Beltz and D. L. Berkeley, billposters, and Tom Moody, chef. A special meeting was held May 2, at which Ed. M. Jackson, J. E. Simpson and D. S. Berkeley, were made members of Local 14, making this a solid union car. This car remained here for several days and the members of Local No. 14 tried to make things as pleasant as possible for the boys. This local is still doing business and things are looking very prosperous.

Notes from Local No. 13, Omaha, Neb.: On April 28, Mr. Henry Seaman and W. E. Sards, car managers, and the following billposters arrived from Buckskin's Wild West Show for Campbell Bros. No. 1 advance car: Bros. James Savage, No. 3; Hopper and Johnson, No. 5; and Mike Burk, No. 13. On May 4, Bro. W. C. St. Clair, of Philadelphia, No. 4, with the opposition of the Wallace Shows, arrived with the following billposters: Bros. A. G. Dow, No. 14; W. W. Beams, No. 14; F. Burns, No. 14; D. Hamill, No. 1; J. Tucker, No. 9 and A. Foreaker, No. 6.

E. Bingdorf, secretary of the International Mechanic Billposters and Billers Union writes as follows from New York City: "Having seen an item in the issue of 'The Billboard' dated April 30, to the effect that Secretary John J. Whitehead of Local No. 10, N. A. B. P. A. denied the report that an independent union had been formed in Minneapolis. I want to say that the managers have agreed to do away with all sniping and outside advertising such as windowwork and the dropping of stretchers, etc. Mr. Whitehead can also be informed that we are a body independent of any other union and carry only mechanics or first-class billposters in this union.

Notes from Local No. 3, Pittsburg, Pa.: President Chas. Joseph, left for Cincinnati on a business trip April 28. Bro. Ike Houser has joined the Pawnee Bill Show as lithographer and banner man. At our last regular meeting, May 1, we had a number of visitors from the Robinson Show Car No. 1. Bros. Gilsey Abrams, No. 11; Harvey Bell, No. 11; Geo. Allen, No. 11; Ike Stanter, No. 11; Frank Kessell, No. 9; Chas. Richards, No. 12 and Ross Youns, No. 6. Each brother had a few good words to say for the Alliance. Bus. Agt. Geo. Abernethy, of No. 3, has been on the sick list for a few days, but is out again and looking after the boys. Bro. John Vorley, will soon take charge of the advertising for the Pittsburg Railway Company's parks. Bro. Vorley has held that position for the past five years. Bro. R. W.

List of Billposters.

(Names and addresses of billposters are inserted in the directory at the following rates: Every week, $4.00 per year; three weeks per month, $5.00 per year; every other week, $2.00 per year; once a month, $1.00 per year. Name and address together to occupy one line only.)

Pierce, who has been connected with the Duquesne Theatre the past season, is arranging to take a trip to St. Louis to visit the Fair. The Barium & Bailey Ave. Car. No. 1, in charge of Mgr. L. W. Murray, was in the city last week and this week Car No. 2, in charge of Al. G. Retail, is here. Both cars are solid union, and the boys report that they are getting along fine.

DISTRIBUTORS' NOTES.

The Knox Billposting and Distributing Co., of Knox, Ind., is distributing and sign tacking for Cascades and report business good in Knox.

John Mulany, of North Adams, Mass., put out 9,000 for Peruna, 7,000 Kickapaw, 15,000 Dr. Kilmer. Binghamton, 6,000 sheets and 12,000 local.

John V. Berry of Shamokin, Pa., distributed 6,000 booklets the past week. He also has contracts for the distribution of 4,000 pamphlets this week.

A. H. Baumgardt Distributing Agency, of Albany, N. Y., writes: We have placed 3,000 circulars to French people only for a local clothing house. Have received work from Felster Printing Co., that they will make us a shipment of Pinkham matter shortly; expect a shipment of packages from Chas. T. Howe & Co., 51 Hudson St., N. Y. City, to deliver to newsdealers. Have had an inquiry from H. K. Mulford Co., Phil., Pa.

The Suburban Advertising Co., of Macon, Ga., writes: We have just completed the following contracts: Placing of 150 board signs for L. A. Thomas Drug Co., of this city, and 50 board and 10 tin signs for W. O. Stevens, druggist of this city; tacked 1,000 Magic Cleaner signs for McCaw Mfg. Co., of this city. Distributed for American Medical Institute, New York; Emerson Drug Co., Baltimore, Md. and General Pure Food Co., Le Roy, N. Y. We are arranging to erect two new large sign boards.

Herman Delker, distributor, of Junction City, Kan., distributed during the month of April, the following: 1,000 books for Fain's Celery Compound (local); 1,000 pamphlets for H. A. Pickering (local); 1,200 books for Peruna Drug Co.; 1,000 envelopes of Skin Cream Ointments; 700 books for E. E. Sutherland Medicine Co. and 500 samples for Loose Wiles Cracker Co. Also tacked 25 banners and 50 signs for the E. E. Sutherland Medicine Co.

COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING.
Mr. W. H. Scott, of New York, who last week gave the big demonstration in the interest of the Union Label, in East St. Louis, made of it a most complete success. The entertainment by Union Label Girlie Poser and the exhibition of the strength of the goods of Sweet, Orr & Co., and W. L. Douglas, marks a new way in advertising. It was attended by 15,000 people.

Circus Gossip.

one. William MacFarland, who is a big horse dealer in Philadelphia, has secured a splendid stock of draft horses. Ed. Holder the other proprietor, is a well-known showman having been connected with Robinsons and Wallace's Shows for years. The main tent will be a 110 round top, with two, 50-foot middle pieces and the menagerie top will be 90x40 feet. One of the principal features of the show will be the first appearance in this country, of Chiquita, the smallest mule in the world. It only arrived but recently from Cape Town. It is nearly five years old, perfectly formed and stands 22 inches high and weighs 138 pounds. Among the features in the show will be a troupe of educated steers broken to harness, and a herd of educated elks. There will be a clever ring performance and it will be one of the largest wagon shows on the road.

The roster of Reed's European Shows is as follows: A. L. Reed, proprietor and manager; V. E. Reed, treasurer; J. B. Buckley, general agent; D. M. Buckley, musical director; Wm. Ketrow, equestrian director; S. B. Henry, in charge of privileges; Col. Frank Dempsey, in charge of canvas; F. C. Richmond, in charge of stock. Dave Caldwell, boss property man; Harry Haley, charge of wardrobe. Performers: Wm. Ketrow, Maud Ketrow, Frank Ketrow, Frank Ketrow Jr., William Waldo, Frank Long, Siedel & Collins, J. W. Dillie and Viola Reed, Musticians: D. M. Buckley, P. Chavens, N. Jackson, F. Hall, R. E. Talkington, Lee Graves, Max Peters, J. D. Griffith, Chas. Strickland, Clint Dewitte. The show opened at Chillicothe, Ohio, Thursday April 28.

Notes from Bomber Bros.' Show: The newly equipped Golden Mascot Shows have just moved into their new and commodious winter quarters at Augusta, O. T., and are preparing for the opening. The work of finishing up the new wagons is rapidly approaching the end. All the old titles have been relegated to oblivion and name of Golden Mascot appears on every wagon, all bills, advertisements, contracts, tickets, cards and letter heads used by the show. The roster for 1904 is as follows in part: Howard A. Bonheur, general manager; J. R. Bonheur, treasurer; Amos G. Bonheur, advance adjuster, with two assistants; P. J. German, manager side show; E. A. Thybault, in charge of side show property, tents, banners, etc.; O. M. Purcell, boss canvasman; Win Salter, Roy Ralls, H. J. Wine and others on canvas; Clyde Rialdo, principal clown; Nellie Rialdo, soubrette; Rosaline Wilmarth, piano; Evangeline Wilmarth, comedienne; Pauline Wilmarth, concert artist and rider; Wm. Voss, juggling and pantomime clown; Vangie Sunbeam, dancer; Zeelab, the Jap, in mystic wonders and biblical miracles; the Rialdos, aerial artists; troupe of ponies, dogs, monkeys, goats, parrots, geese, flamingos and trained canaries, fresh from the winter animal college, and the ever-new illustrated songs and moving picture marvels.

OBITUARY.

W. J. Stevens, generally known as Prof. Chas. Raymond, of Norfolk, Va., died April 29 at Dallas, Tex., as the result of his injuries recently sustained in a balloon accident at Smithville. The professor was taken to St. Paul's Sanitarium at Dallas, Tex., for treatment, but seeing that he was so badly hurt, the physicians in charge agreed that there was no possible hope and would not operate upon the man. Both legs were broken and he was hurt internally. The professor was well known all over the United States, as he has been making ascents for over eighteen years. The remains were shipped to Norfolk, where relatives took charge of the interment.

POINTED PENCILINGS BY PYRAMUS

(Special to The Billboard.)

Sir Henry Irving arrived home April 5, and after a short rest will start on a provincial tour.

This only emphasizes the fact that, for even the best talent, long metropolitan engagements are not profitable, as in the end they almost invariably have to go to the country, for sometimes invariably have to the country, for sometimes much-needed financial support. Tony Pastor used to take his annual tour, likewise Nell Burgess, Lew Dockstader, Weber & Fields and others I might mention, have had to hie themselves to the land of the "Yokes" for monetary aid.

London is avowedly the home of ballets and where the vast army of fairy-like dancers are recruited from, that appear in the immense spectacles of old Drury Lane, the Alhambra, Empire, and others, has often puzzled me, but I was enlightened on the subject recently by taking a stroll through the densely-populated East Side. A street piano was playing and armies of ragged children were to be seen in the midst of all kinds of intricate dances from the toe-whirl of "le grande Coryphée" to the popular cakewalk.

Earl's Court opens with the Italian Exhibition, May 11. Among the attractions will be a miniature reproduction of Venice with its picturesque canals, gondolas and gondoliers.

The West Side is to have a new exposition building at Shepherd's Bush Green, near the Western terminus of the "Trippenny tube," under the management of Mr. L. Kiralfy.

Charles Meredith, of the advance staff with Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show has been quite ill with pneumonia, but is improving slowly.

Col. Mike Coyle, assistant manager of the same aggregation is also on the sick list, having contracted a severe cold.

"Teddy" Tudor, who has been a fixture with the Wild West Show for a number of years, mourns the loss of his son, Teddy Jr., aged 18 months, who died April 10, of convulsions caused by teething. Mr. and Mrs. Tudor have the heartfelt sympathy of all who know them, in their sad bereavement.

There is a new star in the bright constellation of stars. This particular star, a bouncing seven pounder, arrived at the home of Alfred D. Starr, treasurer of the Wild West Show, in London, April 6. I am pleased to state that mother and child are doing well. The father steps rather highly just now, but he can scarcely be blamed as this is his first-born.

Harry Hondini, "Goal breaker and hand-cutting king," finished his lengthy engagement at the Hippodrome the 9th, and was to have opened at New Castle the 11th, but is lying very low with malarial fever at the Hotel Province. When I called on April 12 his temperature was 102 degrees. PYRAMUS.

MEDICAL SPIEL

THE ONLY BOOK DEVOTED TO STREETMEN, CARRIAGE DOCTORS, MEDICAL LECTURERS, OPTICIANS, CURBSTONE SELLERS AND TO ALL WHO SELL MEDICINE, TOILET OR CURATIVE GOODS THROUGH ART OF SPEECH.

"MEDICAL SPIEL"—Put the talk that sells the goods in your mouth ready for delivery. It contains Medicine lectures, anecdotes, stories, quotations, references with practical application. 250 pages filled with lectures of money value.

"MEDICAL SPIEL"—tells what to say, and how to talk to an audience or individual, to hold attention, amuse, instruct and interest sufficiently to touch the pocket-book. It is prepared by a physician who is a most entertaining and successful medical lecturer, who understands human nature, and how to appeal to the whims, prejudices and wants of people who are ill, or who may be made to think they need curative or toilet wares. It will also prove a great help in the preparation of Medical Advertising. If you secure and study this book you would not part with it for any price. You will save preparing new lectures; they are ready for use. Book is worth $100. to every medicine man. Book will be sent on receipt of $5. prepaid.

WANTED

OPENING OF SEASON OF 1904

First Grand Mid-Summer Festival and Carnival

CONDUCTED UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE United Labor League

OF PITTSBURG, ALLEGHENY AND VICINITY

Commencing Saturday, June 11, and continuing to Saturday, June 25, Inc.

To be Held in the Very Heart of Allegheny.

The main portal of the Exposition will be within one block of the Allegheny City Hall and within five minutes' walk of the business center of Pittsburg. This will be our only enclosure. The United Labor League is composed of all the Labor and Trades Organizations of Pittsburg, Allegheny and vicinity, with a membership of over 95,000. It is the most powerful organization of its kind in this section of the country. For this occasion there will be added six more of the greatest Free Open-air Attractions on earth, making eight in all, and several more high-class Shows. There will also be an exhibition of 600 regular soldiers, who will give daily parades, drills and sham battles. Also two splendid bands. In addition to this, the merchants and manufacturers of both cities will hold a monster Exposition of the Commercial Arts in conjunction with the Carnival and within its grounds. The grounds will be brilliantly illuminated by 100 arc lights and 10,000 incandescent lamps. It will be the greatest, the most stupendous and ambitious event of this character ever held in the country, far surpassing the monster carnivals held in Pittsburg last season. The railroads running into Pittsburg and Allegheny will make special excursion rates. The grounds are reached by all car lines. We have many more towns booked, all thriving communities within 100 miles of Pittsburg, but refrain from publishing them on account of many contractors suffering from the malady known as Pro-Daefitis, so prevalent last season.

PRESS:

The Publicity Department will be under the direction of VIC CALVER, assisted by a competent staff.
